

LIST OF TABLES

Particulars	Page No.
1.1 Description of the Terms of Non-Verbal Communication	8
3.1 Tools According to Sample and Objectives	66
3.2 The Components & Sub-Components of Non-Verbal Communication Included in the Scale to Observe Non-Verbal Communication Behaviour	69
3.3 Description of Each Rating in the Rating Scale	70
3.4 Scores of Descriptive Terms in Scale to Observe Non-Verbal Communication, Scale to Observe Classroom Transaction and Reaction Scale	76
3.5 Techniques Used for Analysis of Data Collected Through Different Tools	79
4.1. Phase-wise and Group-wise Average Intensity Indices (For Rating 5 to 1 for Most Appropriate to Most Inappropriate Respectively) for the Use of Oculistics Component of Non-Verbal Communication and their Difference	83
4.2 Phase-wise and Group-wise Average Intensity Indices (For Rating 5 to 1 for Most Appropriate to Most Inappropriate Respectively) for the Use of Paralinguistics Component of Non-Verbal Communication and their Difference	86
4.3 Phase-wise and Group-wise Average Intensity Indices (For Rating 5 to 1 for Most Appropriate to Most Inappropriate Respectively) for the Use of Proxemics Component of Non-Verbal Communication and their Difference	90
4.4 Phase-wise and Group-wise Average Intensity Indices (For Rating 5 to 1 for Most Appropriate to Most Inappropriate Respectively) for the Use of Facial Expressions Component of Non-Verbal Communication and their Difference	93
4.5 Phase-wise and Group-wise Average Intensity Indices (For Rating 5 to 1 for Most Appropriate to Most Inappropriate Respectively) for the Use of Kinesics Component of Non-Verbal Communication and their Difference	97
4.6 Phase-wise and Group-wise Average Intensity Indices (For Rating 5 to 1 for Most Appropriate to Most Inappropriate Respectively) for the Use of Chronemics Component of Non-Verbal Communication and their Difference	100
4.7 Phase-wise and Group-wise Average Intensity Indices (For Rating 5 to 1 for Most Appropriate to Most Inappropriate Respectively) for the Use of Artifacts Component of Non-Verbal Communication and their Difference	104

4.8	Phase-wise and Group-wise Average Intensity Indices (For Rating 5 to 1 for Most Appropriate to Most Inappropriate Respectively) for the Use of Posture Component of Non-Verbal Communication and their Difference	107
4.9	Component-wise and Group-wise Average Intensity Indices (For Rating 5 to 1 for Most Appropriate to Most Inappropriate Respectively) of Different Components of Non-Verbal Communication	110
4.10	Phase-wise and Group-wise Average Intensity Indices (For Rating 5 to 1 for Most Appropriate to Most Inappropriate Respectively) of Non-Verbal Communication and their Difference in the Introduction Stage of Teaching	113
4.11	Phase-wise and Group-wise Average Intensity Indices (For Rating 5 to 1 for Most Appropriate to Most Inappropriate Respectively) of Non-Verbal Communication and their Difference in the Presentation Stage of Teaching	117
4.12	Phase-wise and Group-wise Average Intensity Indices (For Rating 5 to 1 for Most Appropriate to Most Inappropriate Respectively) of Non-Verbal Communication and their Difference in the Revision Stage of Teaching	120
4.13	Phase-wise and Group-wise Average Intensity Indices (For Rating 5 to 1 for Most Appropriate to Most Inappropriate Respectively) of Overall Use of Non-Verbal Communication and their Difference	123
4.14	Phase-wise and Group-wise Average Intensity Indices (For Rating 5 to 1 for Most Appropriate to Most Inappropriate Respectively) of Maintenance of Discipline during Classroom Transaction	127
4.15	Phase-wise and Group-wise Average Intensity Indices (For Rating 5 to 1 for Most Appropriate to Most Inappropriate Respectively) of Attention of Students during Classroom Transaction	130
4.16	Phase-wise and Group-wise Average Intensity Indices (For Rating 5 to 1 for Most Appropriate to Most Inappropriate Respectively) of Classroom Interaction during Classroom Transaction	133
4.17	Phase-wise and Group-wise Average Intensity Indices (For Rating 5 to 1 for Most Appropriate to Most Inappropriate Respectively) of Interest of Students during Classroom Transaction	136
4.18	Phase-wise and Group-wise Average Intensity Indices (For Rating 5 to 1 for Most Appropriate to Most Inappropriate Respectively) of Classroom Environment during Classroom Transaction	139
4.19	Average Intensity Indices (For Rating 5 to 1 for Most Appropriate to Most Inappropriate Respectively) of Classroom Transaction by Experimental Group and Control Group	142
4.20	Group-wise Total Number of Scores (N), Sum of Ranks (R) and Obtained Value of Mann-Whitney Coefficient (U_{obt}) for Classroom Transaction	144
4.21	Intensity Indices (For Rating 5 to 1 for Strongly Agree to Strongly Disagree Respectively) of Reaction of Experimental Group Towards Training Programme on Non-Verbal Communication for 25 Items of Reaction Scale	146
