

-----

I take this opportunity to express my deep sense of gratitude and sincere thanks to my guide Professor M.B.Buch, the then Head, Centre of Advanced Study in Education, and Professor of Education, the M.S.University of Baroda, whose notable and worthy contributions as a change agent in Indian society are well known as a teacher himself. Much has been done under his leadership in the area of teacher education and the present one is a drop in the ocean. In spite of his extremely busy hours even after retirement from the CASE, he always inspired me and offered me valuable and constructive suggestions to put the present thesis in order.

I acknowledge my indebtedness to all the respondents of the research instrument, without whose co-operation, the work could not have been possible.

Last but not the least, I take this opportunity to thank all my friends, well-wishes<sup>x</sup>, family members who have their indirect contribution in encouraging me to pursue the study and the Indian Council of Social Science Research, New Delhi for granting me the financial aid to take up this study.

January, 1979

C.J.PURANI