

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

An investigator can never acknowledge all the debts, intellectual and otherwise, that he incurs in the course of his work. I would like to acknowledge a few of the most obvious ones. I owe a singular debt to my guide Dr. M. B. Buch, Professor and Head, Centre of Advanced Study in Education, Baroda, not only for his continuous intellectual stimulation and inspiring guidance but also for his love, affection, support and constant encouragement. It is a pleasure and privilege to express a deep sense of gratitude to him. The debt is irredeemable.

I am particularly grateful to Sri H. N. Singh, Principal, T.D. Training College, Jaunpur, U.P., Sri P. B. Singh, Principal, T.D.S. Inter College, Jaunpur, and his colleagues who gave me all the facilities for experimentation. I wish to express my appreciation for the student-teachers who through their ready cooperation made the study a possibility. My special thanks are due to the authorities of Centre of Advanced Study in Education, Baroda and University Grants Commission, New Delhi, for awarding Teacher Fellowship to me for 1972-73 and also to the Management Board of T.D. College, Jaunpur for deputing me to avail this opportunity and work at the Centre. A grant of Rupees five hundred for the books and field study was also received from U.G.C. All these facilitated the investigation.

I am greatly indebted to the authors whose works have been consulted and made use of in carrying out this research study, I feel highly obliged to Dr. B.K.Passi, Reader, Centre of Advanced Study in Education, Baroda, not only for his valuable suggestions regarding statistical treatment of the data but also for his continued advice and encouragement which have been in no small measure responsible for the accomplishment. I am thankful to all my friends and colleagues for their help and good wishes.

Finally, of course, I wish to express my deep sense of appreciation for my wife, children and other family members without whose encouragement I would never have completed this investigation. My thanks are also due to Sri P. B. Parikh for typing the manuscript.

BARODA,
JUNE 12, 1973.
