

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and foremost, I wish to express my deepest gratitude and sincere thanks to my Guide, Dr. Shubhada Kanani, Professor, in The Department of Foods and Nutrition, for her valuable guidance, support and time. The quality work presented here, was possible due to Shubhada madam's encouraging, optimistic attitude, insights and patience. She is an asset for every student.

I extend my sincere thanks to Prof. UV Mani, Head, The Department of Foods and Nutrition, Faculty of Home Science for extending his support and encouragement and providing facilities to conduct this study.

I thank Dr. Prakash V Kotecha, Head and Professor, Department of Preventive and Social Medicine, Medical College, Vadodara, for extending his timely support and guidance. I would in particular like to thank him for providing iron folate tablets for the supplementation in the primary schools.

I acknowledge my gratitude to Dr. Rashmin Sompura, Lecturer, The Department of Psychology, Faculty of Arts, for extending his support and guidance regarding cognitive function tests. A special thanks to Dr. HT Toprani, Consulting Pathologist, Toprani Laboratories for providing facilities to carry out laboratory estimations.

I am very thankful for the help and co-operation extended by the Primary School Board, Vadodara, for granting me the permission to carry out the present study. I thank the Principals and dedicated teachers for their patience and help extended. I warmly thank the primary schoolgirls. They are worthy of special appreciation, for they made this piece of work possible. They hold a special place in my heart.

I also appreciate the help extended as and when required, by Ms. Smita Maniar during the course of the study, for data analysis.

I offer my heartfelt thanks to my friends Radhika, Meghana, Veenu, Minal and Arti for their encouragement throughout the study period and for cheering me up when times were tough. My special thanks to Panam di for just being there.

Finally, a special word of thanks to my mother-in-law and father-in-law for being patient and showering their blessings on me.

I owe unending gratitude to my parents, for showering their care and affection and being a support not only during this study but in all my endeavors. I would like to take this opportunity to express my appreciation to my brother, Jayanta, who believed from the onset that I could accomplish this work. I cannot forget to thank my bhabhi, Eliza and the little one, Agustya, for being there.

My best friend and husband, Amit's perseverance helped me achieve my goal. He was the pillar supporting me when I needed support; a source of motivation, and a friend, always by my side. I thank him for having faith in me.

Ms. Aditi Sen

“Keep the faith that you are committed to a most noble cause, the well-being of people whom you do not know but whose needs you feel intensely. Redouble your efforts in whatever you do in nutrition while being bold and imaginative.”
