

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I feel deep gratitude to my guide Dr.R.K.Parlikar, for his valuable guidance and sustained interest bestowed on me at every stage of my investigation. His support coupled with his typical friendly approach was crucial in completing this research work.

Now, Prof.N.S.Pathak. His ideas have contributed greatly to the improvement of all aspects of this research work. I consider Pathak sir as my friend, guide and philosopher.

Many of the teachers of the Faculty of Education and psychology, M.S.University of Baroda, were helpful to me in several ways; especially noteworthy are the help offered by Prof.S.Roy and Dr.Thomas. Dr.Z.M.Quraishi gave me some suggestions regarding statistical analysis. I express my sincere thanks to all the teachers and research scholars of this faculty.

I am very much grateful to the headmasters, teachers and students of the schools in my sample. Without their whole-hearted co-operation, this research would have been almost impossible.

I really find it difficult to express my feelings towards my friends Sailaja Shivji and P.K.Shivdas who had been constant inspirations all through my research. They helped me by offering fruitful suggestions and constructive criticisms; by motivating me whenever I was paced back; by guiding me during periods of difficulties; and by providing valuable assistance in many of the activities of research. The success of this thesis is largely due to the tremendous contributions of theirs.

I, quite obviously, have a number of people dear to me to thank for their help and support in different phases of the study - including Mrs. Devi T.S.N. (my mother), Sri T.S.Narayanan Nambudiri (my father), M.K.Hari Narayanan, Kunjanian, E.C.Kavitha, T.M.Simi and P.D.Narayanan, to mention some.

My thinking has been greatly stimulated by the work and writings of many of the pioneers of educational research : B.S.Bloom, R.M.Gagne, R.D.Tennyson and H.J.Klausmeier, being chief among them. I am extremely grateful to them all. A note of special thanks is essential for Gagne and Klausmeier : they helped me by assigning ratings to the dimensions of concept teaching and rule teaching derived by me.
