

LIST OF TABLES.

TABLE No.		PAGE.
1.	Background Characteristics of the Sample.	206
2.	Age, Education and Occupation of Respondents and Head of the Family.	208
3.	Characteristics of the Disabled Person in the Family.	210
4.	Nature of Disability of the Disabled Person in the Family.	213
5.	Nature of Defect to the Body Part of the Disabled Person.	214
6.	Causes of Disability.	216
7.	Frequency Distribution of Disabled Person in the Family According to the Extent of Disability in Different Areas of Activity.	218
8.	Effect of Disability on Growth and Development of Disabled Person.	220
9.	Treatment Given to Disabled Person.	222
10.	Medical Help Sought at Present.	223
11.	Psychological Problems Faced by the Respondents.	225
12.	Social Problems Faced by the Respondents.	226
13.	Problems Faced by the Respondents with Regards to Education of the Disabled Person.	228
14.	Problems Faced by the Respondents with Regards to Employment of the Disabled Person.	229
15.	Problems Faced by the Respondents with Regards to Marriage of the Disabled Person.	230
16.	Financial Problems Faced by the Respondents.	232
17.	Problems Faced by the Respondents in Management of Household work.	234
18.	Inadequacies in Housing Conditions and Facilities Creating Problems for Disabled Person.	237

TABLE NO.		PAGE.
19.	Goals for Rehabilitation of the Disabled Person.	240
20.	Decision-making Pattern with Regards to Area of Rehabilitation.	242
21.	Psychological Adjustments Made by The Respondents.	245
22.	Social Adjustments Made by the Respondents.	246
23.	Practices Related to Education, Employment and Marriage of the Disabled Member.	247
24.	Expenditure on Treatment of Disabled Person.	249
25.	Sources of Financial Help for Families.	252
26.	Financial Management Practices Followed by Respondents.	253
27.	Time Spent by Homemakers in the care of Disabled Person.	255
28.	Help Available to the Homemaker.	256
29.	Time Spent by Homemakers in Rest, Sleep and Leisure.	257
30.	Practices Followed for Management of Household work.	259
31.	Changes Made in Housing Conditions.	260
32.	Overall Management Practices.	262
33.	Attitude of Respondents Towards Disability.	263
34.	Chi-square Values Showing Relationship Between Extent of Problems Faced by the Homemaker and the Nature of Disability.	266
35.	Correlation Between the Extent of Problems Faced by the Homemaker and the Extent of Disability.	267
36.	Correlation Between the Extent of Problems Faced by the Homemakers and the Age of the Disabled Person.	268

TABLE NO.		PAGE
37.	Chi-square Value Showing Relationship Between the Role of the Disabled Person and Extent of Problems.	268
38.	t-test Value to Compare the Mean Scores on the Extent of Problems Faced and the Sex of the Disabled Person.	269
39.	t-test Value to Compare the Mean Scores on the Extent of Problems Faced and the Type of Family.	269
40.	t-test Value to Compare the Mean Scores on the Extent of Problems Faced by the Homemakers in Management of Household Work and the Type of Family.	270
41.	Correlation Between the Income of the Family and Financial Problems; and Income of the Family and the Problems in Management of Household Work.	271
42.	Correlation Between the Extent of Problems Faced by the Homemakers and Their attitude Towards Disability.	272
43.	Correlation Between Frequency with which Adjustments were and Extent of Disability; Extent of Problems Faced and Attitude of Homemaker.	273
44.	Correlation Between Specificity of Goals for Rehabilitation of Disabled Person and; Problems Faced; Adjustments Made and Attitude of the Homemaker.	275
45.	Partial Correlation Among Problems Faced; Adjustments Made and Attitude of Homemaker Towards Disability.	277
46.	Feasibility of Suggestions Evolved to Help Homemakers in Improving Management.	305