

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The author expresses his deep sense of gratitude to Dr. L.S. Chamyai, Department of Geology, for his guidance and constant encouragement. His perservance and moral support has largely been responsible for the successful completion of this study.

He is grateful to Prof. N.D. Desai, Head, Department of Geology and Professors M.P. Patel and S.J. Desai for providing departmental facilities, support and encouragement.

The author is grateful to Shri D.M.Maurya for his untiring help not only in the field but also in compilation of the data and for going through the various chapters of the thesis and for offering constructive suggestions. This friend kept the authors hopes alive and cheered him up in the moments of despair and anxiety.

The author has been considerably benefited from useful discussions with Prof. S. S. Merh and Prof. K.S. Valdiya, Jawaharlal Nehru Centre for Advanced Research, Bangalore.

Help and assistance provided by Ms. Rachna Raj, Shri M.B.Wadi and Ms.Usha Dubey have been invaluable at all stages of this work.

The author would be failing in his duty if he does not acknowledge the help and support rendered to him by his colleagues Shri J.M.Patel and Shri H.V. Majethiya. Shri N.D.Vankar and Shri Sanjay Makwana helped the author immensely.

He would also like to place on record the encouragement, support and affection bestowed on him by his parents, brothers, sisters and specially his wife Hema who patiently endured his absence and encouraged him to complete the thesis.
