

Acknowledgement

Foremost, I wish to express my heartfelt devotion to GOD for his graceful blessings at every step without which nothing could have been possible.

I find it a matter of pride and privilege to express my sincere gratitude and indebtedness to my guide, Dr.(Mrs.) Maneesha Shukul, Professor, Head, Department of Home Management, Faculty of Family and Community Sciences, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, for her scholarly guidance, systematic and constructive suggestions, constant inspiration, moral support and counselling. I have real appreciation and regards for her and her keen interest, judicious guidance, whole hearted ever available and painstaking efforts and above all her warm friendly behaviour.

I express my gratitude to all teachers and staff members of the Home Management Department for their inspiration, encouragement and help during entire course of present study.

Words are lacking to express my profound thanks to my respected in-laws, for their wholehearted help, recurrent adjustments, moral support and encouragement especially during the stressful periods. Without their blessings this dream could not have been achieved.

I feel short of words to express my thanks, love and affection to my husband Mr. Chinmay Dholakia for demonstrating understanding during an often tiring period. Without his forbearance, appreciable cooperation, patience, sacrifice and moral support this work would not have been completed. He has been source of inspiration for me at every stage with enthusiasm and perseverance.

My deep emotional sense of feeling goes towards the crucial role played by my son, Maahir, who has continuously cooperated, adjusted and supported during the final phase of thesis work.

Although it's like drop in the ocean, yet I would like to avail this opportunity to express my heartiest sense of reverence and immense love to my parents and nannafai whose endless love, blessing, moral support, inspiration and sacrifices made me competent enough to fight the battle of life and achieve the goal. I am also thankful to my brother who always stood by me and spared time for me in spite of hectic schedules and engagements.

I am indebted to God for giving good friends like Praptimasi, Kalindi, Vrushali, Sarjoo and Nidhi who helped me in various ways during the entire thesis work. I express my sincere thanks to Kapilbhai Shahi, Managing Trustee, JATAN, for supporting and helping me during my entire research work.

I express my thanks to all my respondents (consumers, shopkeepers and farmers) who cooperated with me by sparing their precious time for my work.

Hearty thanks and appreciation goes to Ishwarbhai and Dipakbhai from Home Management Department for helping in various ways during the entire thesis work.

I extend my sincere thanks to all those who have helped me directly or indirectly in carrying out my research. Finally, though omissions are never intentional still they are unavoidable.

Vadodara

Ms. Jalpa Majmudar