

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is with a sense of deep veneration that I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my guide Dr. R. C. Patel. This work would not have been accomplished without his forbearance and verve. My frequent despondencies may have held their way if it was not for his constant motivation. His personation in completion of this work is ineffable.

I would like to thank Prof. S. Kumar, Dean Faculty of Education and Psychology and Head, Department of Education, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda. Who have inspired and encouraged me all throughout the study.

The investigator heartily wishes to extend sincere thanks to Prof. R. G. Kothari, Prof. S. C. Panigrahi, Dr. S. Pathak, Dr. A. Biswal and Mr. V. Acharya and the staff members of the Faculty of Education and Psychology, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda for their valuable suggestions and encouragement especially when it was needed most and their help during different stages of the present investigation.

My special thanks extend to the District Primary Education Officer, Block Resource Coordinator, Cluster Resource Coordinators, Principals, Teachers, VEC/MTA/PTA/VCWC members, Students and Parents of the schools of the Dangs district, who extended their cooperation to undersigned in completion of this work.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to Mr. Y. K. Pandya, former librarian and Mrs. Jesal, librarian for their cooperation at CASE library.

My heartfelt thankfulness also extend out to Jagdish, Sheetal, Jyotsna and all my friends who enlivened the whole experience of work with their encouragement, innovative suggestions and lots of cheerful moments.

The investigator bows his head to his parents, grandfather, brothers, sisters and other relatives who have constantly inspired her to complete the present investigation. It is extremely difficult to put in words the indebtedness, I feel towards my dear parents and grandfather, Mr. Madhubhai L. Chaudhari, Smt. Savitaben M. Chaudhari and Mr. Ranajibhai Chaudhari for they are the ones who saw to it that I continued with renewed vigour each day of the past years. Their blessings, affection, inspiration and care have been of utmost value in accomplishment of this work. I would also like to mention Hemant, Rakesh, Nilesh, Sharmilabhabhi, Sudhabhabhi, Dharmistha, Purvi and Meet for their humorous and congenial temperament that keep me in a good frame of mind throughout.

Lastly, the investigator wishes to thank to all those who have directly or indirectly helped her during the present investigation.
