

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

"Research is to see what everybody else has seen and think what nobody else has thought & create something new which nobody else has created."

Examining what one is unfamiliar with is the essence of research. It's a great method to learn more about something that piques your curiosity. This is an opportunity for me to thank everyone and everything that has played a crucial role in reaching this remarkable milestone.

First and foremost, I want to give my eternal gratitude to Dr Priti Vivek Nigam, an invaluable Research Guide/Research Supervisor, Mentor, and Teacher during this process. There are no words to adequately express my gratitude for her moral support, ongoing efforts, personal interest, words of wisdom, encouragement, passion, unwavering courage, conviction, and invaluable constructive criticism aimed at improvement, all of which have been vitally instrumental in the conduct and completion of this research study. I feel myself fortunate to have had the opportunity to study under her and seek research direction from her. I would only be able to properly thank her via my future research output through published work based on the Ph.D. Thesis. I also express my heartfelt gratitude to Prof. Parimal H. Vyas Sir, Whose guidance always makes me feel fortunate. I thank him for his words of wisdom and parental approach, as well as valuable input and feedback on my research work.

I would also like to extend my thankfulness to the Dean, Faculty of Commerce, Head of the Department, and other fellow colleagues of the Department of Commerce and Business Management, Faculty of Commerce of the M. S. University of Baroda. I would also like to thank Dr Madhusudan Pandya Sir for his wise words, parental attitude, and valuable support on my study work. I also want to admire Dr Parinda Doshi for her constant support regarding the analysis part, which has enabled me to understand and solve diverse problems that I encountered throughout the research study and submission of the Ph.D. Thesis. I would also like to thank senior faculty members Yasin Sir and Minesh Sir at M.K.Amin college for their constant moral support in completing my Ph.D. work.

I also express herewith convey my trustful thanks to the Non-Teaching Staff of the M.K. Amin College and Faculty of Commerce, staff of Smt. Hansa Mehta Library and staff also of the Examinations Section of the university for their support and co-operation in the successful conduct and submission of this research study. I also express my deep sense of gratitude to each of the respondents, that is, Employees, for giving their valuable input, patience & time.

I can not forget that by the blessings of Lord Swaminarayan, My Spiritual Gurus H.P.P Hariprasad Swamiji, H. P.P. Prabodh Swamiji & constant Support of Sadhvi P. Sarveshwar ben & P. Saurabh; I could achieve each & every landmark in my life. I would also like to share my deepest thanks to my in-laws for always believing in me and encouraging me to follow my dreams. They were the support system which helped in whatever way they could during this challenging period. I would also like to share my deepest thanks to my parents, especially my Father. He was truly an inspiration for doing Ph.d. Without his dream of seeing me as Doctorate; I would never reach this position. I would also want to thank my Bhai and Bhabhi for always believing in me, as well as two tiny angels in my life: my nephew Shivam, who is always admiring me and my job, and my unborn baby in my womb, who is growing up with me and my work.

Finally, I'd want to thank my life partner, Sahaj Jaiswal, who has been by my side throughout the conduct of my Ph.D. research work, living every minute of it, and without whom I would not have had the guts to go on the journey in the first place.
