Although I am indebted to many persons, who have been partially responsible for the inspiration, direction and the execution of this study, I wish to place on record my deep sense of gratitude to my dynamic guide, Dr.M.B. Buch, Visiting Professor, South Gujarat University, Surat and formerly Professor and Head, Centre of Advanced Study in Education, M.S. University of Baroda, who, in spite of maintaining a very busy schedule, involving multifarious research projects in India and various Unesco assignments abroad, made himself available, even at odd times, not only to provide creative inspiration and rightful direction to my work but also saw to it that the same was brought to a successful conclusion.

My gratitude is also due to Dr.M.S. Yadav, Reader, Centre of Advanced Study in Education, M.S. University of Baroda, for his patient hearing and encouraging words of advice, particularly, at the initial stage of my study.

I also wish to express my appreciation for the timely help and cooperation extended to me by many persons during my data collection and particularly by Shri B. da Cruz, Director of State Institute of Education and Acting Director of Education, Goa, Daman and Diu, Shri G.K.Verlekar, Statistical Officer, Directorate of Education, Panjim, Goa, Shri S.K. Gandhe, Director of Census Operations, Goa, Daman and Diu, Shri K.N. Hiriyannia, Head, Survey and Data Processing Unit, NCERT, New Delhi and Shri N.D. Kandpal, Librarian, National Staff College for Educational Planners and Administrators, New Delhi.

My thanks are also due to various principals, teacher-educators, school inspectors, headmasters, headmistresses, teachers, student leaders, school managers, parents and many other leading members of the society who have contributed in one way or the other, to bring this study to a successful conclusion.

Finally, I also wish to place on record my deepest sense of gratitude to my beloved wife, Leonora and our two sons, Frederico and David, who, in spite of having to undergo a lot of inconvenience and frustration, due to my being away from them for a long period of time, never ceased to provide genuine encouragement and displayed a great sense of family unity and real understanding of the academic work involved.
