

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am grateful to many distinguished people and institutions that have helped and supported me during my research journey.

Firstly, I would like to extend my deep sense of reverence and gratitude to the person who is a lot more than my friend, philosopher and guide, Dr Madhusudan N. Pandya, for the unending support during my research, for his kindness, consideration, patience, motivation, resoluteness and immense knowledge, for his esteemed consent to guide me and for the inspiration to choose such a topic. Enlightening me with the first glance of research and conducting the academic study regarding such an intricate topic couldn't be as simple as he made this for me. He is my mentor and a better advisor for my doctorate study imagination.

At this point in time, I would also like to specially mention my revered teacher and guru Late Prof. (Dr.) Sharad Bansal, also the former Dean, Faculty of Commerce and the former Head, Department of Cooperative Management and Rural Studies. His guidance had started ever since I was in my M.Com. I cannot thank him enough for the enormous support he has extended throughout. He saw things in me which I could not. I am extremely fortunate that it was only because of him that the academic in me was born. I pray to the almighty for his peaceful afterlife. He is my role model and I will be thankful to god, if I could ever be even a bit of him in academics.

Further, I would extend my hearty gratitude a man who supported me during my struggling days in academics for his constant support and motivation, the former Dean, Faculty of Commerce and the former Head, Department of Business Economics, Prof. (Dr.) Dinkar Nayak.

Besides the above esteemed people, I would also like to thank Mrs. Neeta Baloni, the former Head, Department of Cooperative Management and Rural Studies for providing me with the requisite institutional support throughout my research tenure. Her genuine institutional aid is worthy of my high regards and her endless guidance for academics and administration is hard to forget throughout my life. Her generosity has always been the key to face the challenges and maintaining the work-research balance. I would also like to mention that it was because of her I could enter the world of academics.

Further, I would extend my hearty gratitude to the current Head of the Department Dr. Umesh R. Dangarwala for always motivating me for the research work.

I express my profound gratitude to the current Dean, the Faculty of Commerce, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Prof. (Dr.) Ketan Upadhyay for his logistic support, scholarly advice, invaluable suggestions and blessings.

I also express my heartfelt gratitude to Dr. Parag Shukla, Mr. Mayank Mathur, and Dr. Parinda V. Doshi for their words of wisdom and parental approach as well as valuable inputs and feedback on my research work, which only has enabled me to understand and solve diverse problems that were encountered by me throughout the conduct of the research study and submission of the Ph.D. Thesis. I also express herewith convey my trustful thanks to Non-Teaching Staff of the Faculty of Commerce, staff of Smt. Hansa Mehta Library and also to the staff of Examinations Section for their support and co-operation in successful conduct and submission of this research study.

At this stage in my life, I would like to sincerely acknowledge the people whom I regard precious as gems, my Pappa and Mummy, for showing confidence in me, for giving me the freedom to choose what I desired and for never pressurizing me for taking things up. My Pappa, Mr. Anish Shah, I bow down and extend my love to him. I can never imagine myself like him, being able to do so much for the family. Words will never be enough to say how much I value him. My Mummy, Mrs. Sushma Shah, I salute her for all the selfless love, care, pain and sacrifice she did to shape my life and making me into who I am. Although she knew very little of what I worked upon, she was willing to support any decision I made. I would never be able to pay back the love and affection showered upon me by her. I thank both for their prayers day in and day out for my betterment in academics.

Also, I express my deep thanks to my brother in law Mr. Chaitanya Shah and my sister Mrs. Richa Shah for their motivation, support and prayers. All the more, I acknowledge my niece Shachi and my nephew Sanyam, who have been the light of my life for the last few years. My heartfelt thanks are also for my in laws Mr. Nagin Patel, Mrs. Pravina Patel Mrs. Unnati Patel and Mr. Darpit Patel for the unconditional support they extended to me and my family so far. I genuinely thank them for their love and trust. I would also not like to forget in thanking my maternal grandparents, Mr. Gatubhai Jain and Mrs. Anuben Jain for their prayers and blessings. Also, I am extremely thankful to my paternal grandparents Late Mr. Vipinchandra Shah and Late Mrs. Hasmanben Shah for the warmth and love.

I would also like to thank my dearest people Mr. Ronak Shah, Mr. Rohan Baranda, Dr. Dhiren Parmar, Mr. Himanshu Sevak, Mr. Purvesh Borole and Mr. Alpesh Shah for their love and support. They always managed to make me feel lighter from the academic strains. I would also like to thank each and every one, associated with me, for supporting me academically, physically and spiritually throughout the research and my life in general.

Last but not the least; I owe many thanks to a very special person, my wife, Mrs. Priyansha Shah. I appreciate her for the sleepless nights she spent in support of my research work. Sacrificing her own job in order to support my research and conceiving our child in such challenging times, are the things I shall cherish till eternity. I thank her for the unfailing trust she has showered upon me during the time of crisis. I am extremely fortunate to have her in my life for always letting me read and write, giving me the space for the conduct of my research. I may have lived, breathed and even dreamt of this thesis but one thing is certain that without her, my life and dreams would not have made it to this phase. I am greatly indebted to her and I genuinely thank her from the bottom of my heart. I extend sincere apologies to those, whom I might have missed to acknowledge.
