

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Working on the Ph.D. has been a wonderful and often overwhelming experience. At first, I would like to thank ALMIGHTY GOD for giving me the strength to stand up to all the expectations of my parents and teachers.

Joining the Department of Biochemistry was my long term dream from graduation. But it became a reality when Prof. Rasheedunnisa Begum gave me the opportunity and I joined her laboratory as a Ph.D. student. I would like to express my deep and sincere gratitude to my mentor, Prof. Rasheedunnisa Begum, Department of Biochemistry, The M. S. University of Baroda, for giving me the opportunity to do research and providing invaluable guidance throughout this research. Her dynamism, vision, sincerity and motivation have deeply inspired me. Her critical evaluation, intelligent suggestions and painstaking attention was tremendous. She has taught me the methodology to carry out the research and to present the research work as clearly as possible. It was a great privilege and honour to work and study under her guidance. I am extremely grateful for what she has offered me. I have learnt a lot from her, especially the discipline and dedication she imparted is tremendous and is very crucial for the current and forthcoming successful career. Thank you ma'am for your constant support and making the research work recognized at International level. I expect her valuable and kind guidance in my future endeavours as well.

I would like to express my very sincere gratitude to Prof. G. Naresh Kumar, Head, Department of Biochemistry, The M. S. University of Baroda, who has always encouraged me to do good science with a defined goal. I am sincerely grateful to Prof. Sarita Gupta for the extended support in my FACS experiments.

I would like to thank all the teachers of the Department: Dr. C. Ratnaprabha, Dr. Jayshree Pohnerkar, Dr. S. R. Acharya, Dr. Puspa Robin, Dr. LaxmiPriya and Dr. Devesh Suthar for the valuable comments and suggestions during my presentations.

I wish to express my warm and sincere thanks to Prof. C. V. Ramkrishnan, Founder of the Department of Biochemistry, The M. S. University of Baroda, and Prof. A. V. Ramchandran for important guidance. Their ideals and concepts have had a remarkable influence on my entire career. I am also thankful to Prof. Tara Mehta for her constant support and encouragement. I am thankful to Late Prof. Talang madam, Jani sir. I also extend my deep gratitude to Prof. Anjana Desai & Prof. T. Bagchi for patiently hearing my seminars and giving expert comments that really helped.

I am indebted to our medical collaborators Prof. Y. S. Marfatiya, Head, Skin and V.D., S.S.G. Hospital, Vadodara. Without his encouragement, constant support the work would have not been possible. I owe a great deal of appreciation and gratitude to him, S.S.G. Hospital Baroda, for his kind support in arranging Vitiligo Camps and blood sample collections and thoughtful discussions on Vitiligo etiopathogenesis. My heartfelt thanks to Dr. Bela J. Shah, Head, Skin and V.D., Civil Hospital, and Dr. Manjusha Yadav, Shreenath Hospital, Vadodara, for helping me to carry out the research.

Dr. Rajni Rani, National Institute of Immunology, New dehli, deserves my sincere expression of thanks for providing me experimental hands-on-training on FACS. I owe gratitude to Avinash who willingly devoted so much time in giving guidance to me. I would also like to thank Dr. Rajesh Gokhale, Director IGIB, New Dehli for his collaboration.

I take this opportunity to sincerely acknowledge the CSIR (Council of Scientific and Industrial Research), Government of India, New Delhi, for providing financial assistance in the form of Senior Research Fellowship which buttressed me to perform my work comfortably.

I would like to thank all the non-teaching staff members, especially Pethe sir who always remained supportive and well wisher of mine; Axita madam, Vyas kaka, Ramesh bhai, Manish bhai, Shailesh bhai, Anil bhai, Sandeep bhai, Balvant bhai and Vijay bhai for their support whenever required. I would like to thank Axita madam, Shailesh bhai and Vijay bhai for their help in withdrawing human blood samples.

Special thanks to my present and ex-colleagues with whom I have enjoyed and learned alot, starting from Dr. Shajil Madhavan, Dr. Vikas Sharma, Dr. Keyur Dave, Dr. Hiren Modi, Dr. Pradeep Mishra, Dr. Prakash Pillai, Dr. Niraj Bhatt, Dr. Chirayu Pandya, Dr. Prashant Kumar, Dr. Jyotika Rajawat, Dr. Hina Mir, Dr. Iqbal Vohra , Hemanta Adhikari, Mrinal Sharma, Nidheesh, Chanchal, Kavita, Jitendra, Swapnali, Vijay, Akhilesh, Tushar, Muskan, and Radha. I especially thank Viren (Rushikesh) for helping me in thesis formatting work.

Five and a half years ago, Mr. Naresh C. Laddha and I decided that I would enroll in the Ph.D. program, and throughout this time I always knew this project belonged to us both. He encouraged, supported and understood me at every moment, and I am intellectually indebted to his ideas and our conversations. None of this could have happened without Naresh.

One of the very valuable friends of mine whose mention is very important during this phase is Dr. Ansarullah who along with Naresh always gave me moral support and live research discussions which kept me vibrant for scientific tempo. My friend Dr. Prasant Kumar (Bhaiya) has always supported me in all my endeavours.

During my masters programme Dr. Neepa Pandhi and Minaxi Ma'am have encouraged me to pursue my ambitions with good spirit. During my graduation Prof. Rita N. Kumar and Prof. Nirmal Kumar, Dr. Lipika Patnayak, Dr. Parul, Dr. Urmi Mukharjee and Dr. Vashishtha Bhatt had made my initiation in the field of science and showed me the wonderful world of Biology. It was fascinating to have Teachers like you all and I thank you all.

My colleagues at the lab ensured I was constantly engaged and entertained along the way. I thank all of them, and Imran, Anish, Chetan, Sushila, Kawal, Nishtha, Shruti, Ami, Asmita, Mala, Imtiyaz for their encouragement and friendship. In particular, I can't forget to thank Tina, Shoaib, Kriti (The cute Smile), Kirti and Prachi for keeping the lively environment and support whenever I needed.

The interaction with the masters students was enthralling specially while taking the practicals with bright students like Prit, Bhumika, Maitry, Ritu, Ratnesh, Milan and many more.

Continuing a fine tradition, I want to thank all the dissertation students starting Darshna Dave, Hareesh, Sonalika Rathore, Mausami, Amina, Krishna, Manoj, Vipul, Yogesh, and many more.

I am very grateful to Mr. Pratik Arora for the extended support in FACS experiments, for his lively discussions and constructive feedback throughout the experiments.

The journey of Ph.D. has made me realize the real worth of my family. My extended family members always encouraged and supported me to achieve this goal. Despite the geographical distance, my family was always nearby. I am extremely grateful to my mummy and papa for their love, prayers, caring and sacrifices for educating and preparing me for my future. I am very much thankful to my sisters Vibha and Mayuri, brother-in-laws Kapilji and Himanshuji, for their support and valuable prayers. I can't forget to thank my Aunty 'Tina Masi' for being so caring for my health and work.

I would like to give a sincere thanks to Bharati madam who always cared for me and the delicious food she offered to us on all fasting days.

Most important of all, I would like to acknowledge the hundreds of participants who obligingly and patiently gave me their blood samples and helped me in completing my research.

Mitesh Kumar Dwivedi
