

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to express my deepest gratitude to my Guide, Dr. T. M. V. Suryanarayana, Director, Water Resources Engineering and Management Institute, for his invaluable guidance, expertise, support, mentorship and unwavering commitment throughout the entire research process. His encouragement and motivation played a pivotal role in shaping this thesis. He, as a Guide has always provided me the right direction, determination, all kind of support in terms of resources and facilities, and thoughtful feedback which have always helped me in my research. I am very much thankful for his consistent support, advice, kindness and humbleness. I will always be indebted for his valuable time; he has spared for me during this research. I am very much thankful for his patience which cannot be underestimated. He, as a Director, has provided me many opportunities to explore in my research work. I am thankful for his support and enthusiasm.

I would like to thank Dr. Falguni Parekh, Former Offg. Director, Water Resources Engineering and Management Institute for her encouragement, motivation and support during this research work. Her shared experiences have led to learn a lot.

I would particularly like to thank my colleague and friend Mr. Pranav Mistry. He has stood by me during my toughest times. He has always been there in my laughs and tears, always motivating me and believing in my capabilities. I will never forget him for the support he has given me along my research work and the help he has provided in completing my thesis.

I express my gratitude to my colleagues Mr. Inayat Ali Shah, Mr. Vikas Kumar Rana and Ms. Mugdha Trivedi, for their support, understanding and cooperation during the crucial times. They have handled my responsibilities, without any hesitation. I have always felt a positive work environment with them. I am also grateful to my junior colleague Mr. Ajay Madhu who has been very helping during my initial phase of research work.

I would like to express my appreciation to J. D. Vyas, R. K. Prajapati, Yakub bhai, Swati Sharma, non-teaching staff, Water Resources Engineering and Management Institute, who are not directly connected with my research work but have supported and appreciated me for my work. I would specially thank the peons Dilip bhai and Arun bhai for extending their support by staying till late in the institute for my research work.

I would like to thank my Husband, Mr. Jaimin Shah who has endured my unavailability and endless panics with a smile and kind words. I am grateful for his unconditional support, understanding and his belief in my ability. His care and fun-loving nature have helped me a lot in my tough times. Without his backing, I could have never reached to this stage. Words can never express my gratitude for him.

I would like to thank my parents, Dinesh Sonaliya and Pushpa Sonaliya, who always strived hard to educate me, inculcate values, for their motivation, enthusiasm and their trust in me to complete this research work. Without their blessings nothing feels complete. I also thank my in-laws, Lt. Vasant Shah and Rita Shah, who supported me to carry on with my studies even after the marriage.

I value the love and encouragement of my family and friends, who have always blessed for my success and wellbeing.

In this acknowledgement for my thesis, I extend my appreciation to all those who have been part of this journey.”

Lastly, I thank the almighty God, without who's will, nothing is possible.
