

Acknowledgment

I want to express my deep gratitude to the Almighty Lord Jesus Christ for His grace that has guided me to this point in my journey. "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me" (Philippians 4:13) holds true in every step of my life. First and foremost, I thank God for providing strength and encouragement during the challenging moments of completing this Ph.D. work. I am truly thankful for His unconditional and boundless love, mercy, and grace that have been my pillars of support.

I am deeply grateful to Prof. Vihas T. Vasu for being an exceptional mentor, guiding me not only in research but also beyond. His expertise in science and his kind-hearted, down-to-earth nature left a lasting impact. His gracious and helpful demeanor, coupled with excellent troubleshooting skills, proved invaluable during challenging times. Seeing his face always brought a refreshing energy, motivating me to achieve the best. Prof. Vasu, a father figure to me, demonstrated dedication and positivity even in his last days. His efforts to create a friendly environment, and his humorous nature will be cherished forever. I feel honored to be part of his VVL Family, dedicating this thesis to him. His blessings will always be with me. I extend my thanks to his family, especially to beloved Anushka and Dr. Jyoti ma'am, whose presence and guidance provided the strength to complete my research work. I am immensely grateful to all those who came forward to donate blood and offer support for Vihas Sir during his illness. Your assistance at that critical moment meant a lot to us. Thank you for your invaluable support.

I extend my heartfelt gratitude to Dr. Hetal Roy for her invaluable guidance and support throughout this journey. Her provision of facilities and insightful research ideas played a pivotal role in the completion of my work. Under her mentorship, I learned the art of discussing, connecting, and representing research. She is helpful, kind, and strong demeanor has been a constant source of inspiration. Thank you, ma'am, for your care and unwavering support that played a crucial role in completing this significant journey.

I express my sincere gratitude to the Department of Zoology at The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda for providing the essential facilities for my research. Special thanks to the current Head, Prof. B. Suresh, and former Heads, Prof. P.C. Mankodi, Prof. Dollykumar, Prof. Pragna Parikh, and Prof. Kauresh Vachharajani, for their support to carried out research and administrative matters.

I extend my heartfelt thanks to Dr. Prakash Pillai for his invaluable guidance, encouragement, and provision of lab facilities. I am also grateful to Dr. R.V. Devkar for his support in providing lab facilities and to Prof. Geeta Padate for her encouragement. Thanks to Mr. Hiteshbhai, Mr. Hemantbhai, and other teaching and non-teaching staff of the Department of Zoology for their cooperation in administrative tasks.

I want to thank Prof. Haribhai Kataria, Dean of the Faculty of Science, and the Academic, Exam, and GCU sections at The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda for their administrative support.

My sincere appreciation goes to my lab members - Mrs. Nidhi Nagariya, Ms. Aparna Golani, Ms. Dhruvi Rami, Ms. Poonam Bhagariya, Ms. Helly Shah, and Mr. Afridi Shaikh - for their consent, support, and time in Vadodara. I am grateful for their unconditional camaraderie, both in research and beyond. The time you dedicated and your unwavering support during midnight experiments, research discussions, late-night dinners, and shared moments over tea, coffee, and ice cream will be fondly remembered and deeply missed in the times ahead. I extend my thanks to all dissertation students and colleagues, especially Ms. Shruty, Ms. Harshita, Ms. Simran, Ms. Shipra, Mr. Ruchit, Ms. Prarthna, Ms. Dhristi, Ms. Bharti, Ms. Harshita, Mr. Sujitgiri, Ms. Dewaunshi, Mr. Mukund, Ms. Bindusha, and Mr. Asgar, for their valuable contributions and support. I extend my heartfelt thanks to my colleagues from the Zoology department and other departments, including Ms. Sangati, Ms. Megha, Ms. Sapana, Ms. Minal, Ms. Pampa, Ms. Sneha, Ms. Swasti, Ms. Swagatama, and Ms. Ritvi. I express gratitude to all the research scholars from the Department of Zoology.

A special acknowledgment to my seniors – Mr. Ankit, Mrs. Himadri, Mr. Kapil, Mr. Ruzbeh, Mr. Kangkan, Mr. Ali, Mrs. Kavita, Mrs. Apexa, Mrs. Hitarthi, Mrs. Bhoomi, Mrs. Ankita, Sister Linta, and others - for their assistance and support during the initial stages of my Ph.D. Your help has been instrumental in my journey.

I extend my heartfelt gratitude to my friend, Mr. Hemil Patel, whose kind-hearted nature knows no bounds. His unwavering support and hard work have been invaluable, and I'm thankful for his constant willingness to help. Special thanks to his mother, Mrs. Rashmikaben, and his family for always sending us delicious tiffin. I'd also like to express my thanks to Mr. Ajay Patel and Dr. Irfan Shaikh for their companionship since our time at Samaras hostel. I appreciate the Government of Gujarat for providing hostel facilities; memories of my D-905 room will always be cherished. A big shoutout to the camaraderie formed with friends like Hemil, Afridi, Ajay, Atulbhai, Piyushbhai and others at V.S. Hall. Our shared moments of cooking, gossiping, midnight walks, dinners, and Rajwadi tea are etched in my memory. Room No. 43 holds unforgettable memories. Also, my sincere thanks to my trusted companion, Jarvis (GJ19AB9155, CB Unicorn), which has been with me since 2013.

A heartfelt thank you goes to NFST, MOTA, Government of India, for their invaluable funding support for my research work.

Special thanks to Cell Molecular Biology (CMB) for providing essential instrument facilities. I appreciate the support from Prof. Sarita Gupta, Prof. Pushpa Robin, Mrs. Pooja Ma'am, Mr. Chandrakantbhai, Mr. Miteshbhai, and others. Prof. Rajesh Singh and the Department of Biochemistry, along with their instrumentation facilities, deserve my sincere thanks. I extend my appreciation to Gujarat Biotechnology Research Centre (GBRC) and Dr. Ratika ma'am for their assistance in FACS analysis. I want to thank the National Institute of Biomedical Genomics (NIBMG), Kolkata, for their contribution to the transcriptomics analysis. Your support has been instrumental in the success of my research.

I extend my heartfelt gratitude to my friends Mr. Piyush, Mr. Rahul, Mr. Dipesh, Mr. Vipul, Mr. Dhruv, Mr. Ajay, Ilungas, Mr. Mahesh, Mr. Dinesh Vasava, Ms. Harshida, Mrs. Rinku, Ms. Kalavati, Mr. Sunil and all other B.Sc., M.Sc., School friends, and roommates. Special thanks to Dr. Rajesh Senma sir for being an inspiration and providing unwavering support, shaping our interest in Zoology. A big thank you to my colleagues and students at Government Science College, Vankal.

I also want to express my gratitude to my covenant family brothers Mr. Somiyelbhai, Mr. Kasyapbhai, Mr. Priteshbhai, Mr. Virendrabhai, Mr. Filipbhai, Mr. Piyushbhai, and others. A special thanks to Apostle Rev. Dr. Justin Macwan and everyone from the Restoration family for their blessings, consistent support, prayer, and love. Thanks to Mr. Prafulbhai for his financial support, and thanks to Grace Assembly Mission, Mandvi, for their contribution. Your collective encouragement has played a crucial role in my journey.

I want to express my sincere thanks to my brother, Mr. Pritesh Chaudhari, who has been with me since 2011. His kindness knows no bounds, and I am truly grateful for his unwavering support and hard work. I appreciate his constant willingness to help.

I owe everything to my parents, Mrs. Rantaben (Mother) and Mr. Dineshbhai (Father). Their support has been immeasurable, and their unconditional love knows no bounds. Despite their lack of formal education, their efforts, sacrifices, and hard work have been the driving force behind my journey. I completed this path with them by my side, and their blessings have made me stronger to pursue higher goals in life. A heartfelt thank you for everything. I want to express my gratitude to my entire family, who has been the backbone of my life and a source of unwavering support. I extend my heartfelt thanks to Mrs. Kaushikaben, Mrs. Jayshreeben, Mrs. Kuntaben, Late Mr. Kanubhai, Mrs. Karishmaben, Mr. Kunalbhai, Mrs. Savitaben, Mr. Bhimshingbhai, Late Mr. Ramanbhai, Mrs. Manchhiben, Mrs. Sakinaben, Mr. Sanjaybhai, Ms. Sonalben, Mrs. Jagrutiben, Ms. Urvashiben, Mrs. Mayaben, Mrs. Amitaben, Mrs. Mahimaben, and Mr. Mayurbhai. Special gratitude to the children: Ms. Vedanshi, Mr. Ijek, Ms. Kristina, Mr. Kelvin, Mr. Luky and Mr. Abhi. Your presence has been invaluable. Thank you.

I appreciate each family member for their support, help, and prayers throughout this journey. Your presence and encouragement have meant the world to me. I want to express my sincere thanks to my future wife, Ms. Sandhya, for her unwavering support during my Ph.D. journey. Her understanding and dedication have been invaluable, providing me the strength and encouragement needed to navigate the challenges of academia. I appreciate her sacrifices, patience, and belief in my abilities, making this academic pursuit a shared and enriching experience. Thank you, Ms. Sandhya, for being my steadfast companion and pillar of support.

Once again, I extend my deepest thanks to Jesus Christ, whose unwavering guidance and blessings form the cornerstone of my journey. May His grace inspire and uplift us in all our endeavors.

Kaushalkumar Dineshbhai Chaudhari
