

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

A number of people have rendered help and assistance to me in carrying out my present study, without which I may not have been able to accomplish my task. First and foremost, I remember my late father Mr. Khalifa Ibrahim al-Dhiesat who allowed me to proceed to India from Jordan and supported me both financially and morally till his last breath. I am happy that I have been able to accomplish the task for which he had sent me to India, but I am also sad that he is not in this world anymore to see my work. I have no words to thank my mother, who in spite of her frail health not only continued her support to me but also bore the pangs of separation from me with motherly fortitude for all these years. Also my brothers, Adil, Kaid and Faid, had been more than forthcoming in their moral and material help that I so often needed. I will ever be grateful to them for that.

I am extremely beholden to my supervisor, Professor Syed Hasan Mahmud, for his continuous guidance. His deep understanding of the discipline of history and its requirements has been most educative for me. I learnt from him the method of interpretation of sources. His understanding of Islam and its history was of immense help and guidance to me in my present study. He sat for long hours with me and discussed my formulations and offered his valuable suggestions and guidance. I sincerely thank him for all the pains that he undertook in shaping my work.

My thanks are also due to Dr. Asghar Ali Engineer for not only discussing my research problem with me and offering his suggestions, but also allowing me the use of his library and making certain rare works photocopied for my use. I must also thank the authorities of the Hansa Mehta Library of the M. S. University for making the secondary works available to me whenever I needed them.

I will be failing in my duty if I do not thank Mr. Nikitin Contractor who not only provided me moral support, but he also helped me in getting the formatting of my work done as also its printing. I owe my thanks also to Mr. Anthony Christian for helping me with the technical problems that I had to face with my computer typing from time to time.

Lastly, I have no words to express my thanks to my wife Farzana for her constant support and care and for making things as comfortable as possible for me so that I could accomplish my work.
