

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

My research in India has been financed by the India Council of Historical Research and in Europe by the International Section of Calouste Gulbenkian Foundation of Portuguese. I remain deeply obliged to them. My interest in the historical research has been stimulated by Prof. G. D. Sharma. It was late Prof. S. C. Misra who introduced me to the field of urban history. I am greatly indebted to them. I have done my data collection under the direction of Prof. K. S. Mathew who not only initiated me to the archaic Portuguese but also helped me in many ways. My sincere thanks to him. Without the encouragement, co-operation and guidance from my supervisor Prof. S. K. Desai, this work would not have been in the present form. I express my warm appreciation and gratitude towards him.

My sincere thanks are due to all the Directors and the Staff members of the Historical Archives of Goa, Biblioteca da Ajuda, Biblioteca Nacional de Lisboa, Arquivo Historico Ultramarina, Arquivo Nacional da Torre do Tombo, Biblioteca da Sociedade de Geografia, Biblioteca Publica e Arquivo Distrial de Evopra, Biblioteca Geral de Universidade de Coimbra, Archivum Romanum Societatis Jesu di Roma and Cetnro Filmoteca Ultramarina Portuguese. I also express my thanks to the Librarians and the Staff members of Smt. Hansa Mehta Library and Central Library of Baroda, Xavier Center of Historical and Central Library of Goa, University Library of Goa and District Library of Alibaug. My friends Mr. Dhananjay Navelkar and Mr. Sambrekar of the Goa Archives not only helped me in locating relevant books but also supported my ~~stafys~~ in Panjim by various ways. Mrs. Morais of the same Archives helped me in my research work .

I should also like to express my thanks to Prof. Luis Filip Tomaz of the Universidade de Lisboa, Prof. A.R. Kulkarni, Dr. Shirodkar, Prof. B.S. Shastri, Dr. K.M. Mathew, Dr. T.R. de Souza, Prof. S.R. Rao and a number of other scholars who have shown interest in my work and made some suggestions that enabled me to develop my research work. My seniors in the Department of History of the M.S. University of Baroda have discussed various issues of the present study and made some useful comments. I owe to all of them.

My friend Ar. Prakash Vagadia and his draftsmen Mr. Dilip Malusare and Mr. Haribhai Sojeetra Spent their valuable time with me during my survey work at Chaul. They helped me in measuring the sites, sketching the town planing and finally in preparing the map of the town with help of the feed back given by me. My greatest debt to Prakash and his team for their co-operation and professional assistance. My friends in the department, Dr. B. Krishnamurthy and Dr. Rajkumar Hans who have taken pains to go through the final draft of my work and have suggested some changes that enthused me to revise some of the chapters. I am very grateful to both of them.

My father has always evinced great interest in my research work and encouraged me to slide over the stage of depression. My sister Pushpa and her friend Mrs. Kashmira Mane always stood behind me whenever I had to face some financial or domestic problems. My grateful thanks are due to my friends Prakash Vagadia, Sudhir Sonawane, Suresh Kale, Sudhakar Potdar and many others who helped me in several ways during the course of my research

Last but not least, I would like to place on records my sincere thanks to Mr. Arvindbhai Parmar and Mr. Rajeshbhai Patel of Systime Computer Services, Sama, Baroda for taking real pains in computerizing my work to its finest form.
