

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

My research work has been an enlightening process for me. It has not only been an academic exercise but has added immensely to the growth of my personality.

It gives me immense pleasure to express my feelings to those who have helped me in the completion of this work.

I would especially like to express my gratitude to my Research Guide Prof. B. H. Elavia for nurturing and being a constant source of motivation and inspiration.

I am also grateful to the Reserve Bank of India and M.S. University for awarding me the research fellowship for the Ph.D. programme.

I am thankful to the Dean, Prof. B.S. Patel and Mr. U.D. Pandya the superintendent of Faculty of Commerce for their co-operation. My special thanks to Dr. J.K. Syan, Dr. D.K. Chellani and Mr. Jimmy Vandriwala of the Department of Banking and Business Finance. I also thank the library authorities of WHODSIC at M.S. University of Baroda, NIPCCD and Centre for Women and Development Studies at New Delhi for their kind co-operation.

My appreciations are due to Prof. Kathleen Cloud, Director of WID, University of Illinois, USA for orienting me with the gender perspective and Prof. Amita Verma for strengthening my resolution to work for women's issues.

I also owe my immense appreciation and gratefulness to my Parents, Sisters and Shyambhai for playing a vital role in providing me with constant support and encouragement through all hazards of life and education.

With immense satisfaction I express my gratefulness to my friends; Dr. Dhruvlata Bhatt for accompanying me on my field visits, Dr. Subbarao for his valuable suggestions and Prashant of Media Point at Fathegunj for his computer editing.

Let me not forget Prakash and Raju our faculty peons for lending their helpful hands during long hours at the computer and work.

In the end I profusely express my deep feelings to my very best friend and husband Sharad for his meticulousness, support and encouragement. Without his support I would never have completed my thesis.

I solely devote this work to two great women who have always inspired me my mother and my sister Geeta.
