

LIST OF FIGURES

FIGURE	TITLE	PAGE
1.	Stress Curve	13
2.	Conceptual Framework	59
3.	A Model Showing Hypothesised Relationship Among the Variables in the Study	79
4.	Allocation of a Day's Time on Various Activities by Career Women in Dual Career Families	106
5.	Distribution of Household Work by Members in the Family	117
6.	Share of Stressors from Each of the Sources in Overall Stressors in Employment Organisation	131
7.	Share of Stressors from Each of the Sources in Overall Stressors in Family Organisation	138
8.	Comparison of Stressors from Different Sources between Employment and Family Organisations	139
9.	Career Women by Employment Organisation Stress Coping Strategies and Family Organisation Stress Coping Strategies Scores	142
10.	Comparison of Social Support in Employment and Family Organisations	145
11.	Career Women by Perceived Level of Career Role Fulfilment and Perceived Level of Familial Role Fulfilment	158
12.	Career Women by Level of Past and Future Career Goal Attainment	161

13.	Career Women by Level of Past and Future Familial Goal Attainment	162
14.	Relation of Personal and Family Variables with Extent of Stress Experienced, Perceived Level of Career Role Fulfilment and Perceived Level of Familial Role Fulfilment	301
15.	Relation of Situational Variables with Extent of Stress Experienced, Perceived Level of Career Role Fulfilment and Perceived Level of Familial Role Fulfilment.	302