

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I have worked with a great number of people whose contribution in assorted ways have helped in completing this research and the making of the thesis, and so deserve a special mention. It is a pleasure to convey my gratitude to them all, in my humble acknowledgment.

Foremost, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my guide Dr. Anjali Karolia, Reader and Head, Department of Clothing and Textiles, Faculty of Family and Community Sciences, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, for her patience, supervision, advice, immense knowledge and guidance from the very early stage of this research as well as giving me extraordinary experiences through out my work. She taught me how to write research papers, had confidence in me when I doubted myself and above all and the most needed, she provided me unflinching encouragement and support. I am indebted to her more than she knows. Ma'am thank you very much for patiently correcting and editing my work.

My sincere thanks also goes to my co-guide Dr. Ashutosh Mairal, Reader and Head, Department of Textile Chemistry, Faculty of Technology and Engineering, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda for his advice and supervision, which is like the backbone of this research and this thesis. His involvement, with his originality has triggered and nourished my intellectual maturity that I will benefit from, for a long time to come.

I would also like to thank the University for the University Fellowship, which has supported me during my last three years of research.

Heartfelt thanks to Mr. Rajesh Saraf, Resil Chemicals Pvt Ltd. Ahmedabad for sponsoring the commercial soil-release finishes and non-ionic liquid detergent for the study, and also for his valuable suggestion and timely help. I would like to thank Mr. Nirmal Panjabi, Clariant Pvt. Ltd. Thane, for providing me commercial UV absorbers for the study.

I am grateful to Dr. C. J. Panchal Reader, of Department of Applied Physics, Faculty of Technology and Engineering, the Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda and his research students Vipul Shah and Jaymine for fabrication of the instrument for testing percent UVR transmission and permitting me to conduct tests on it whenever required.

To Mr. B.G.Nanavati, Vice President (Text.), Modern Petrofil, a grateful thank you for giving me the opportunity to work in their laboratory for HTHP dyeing and to Dr. K.N. Bhaumik (Snr. Manager) and Mr. Paresh K Shah (Snr. Chemist), for their technical assistance.

I am deeply indebted to Mr. N.N.Shah and Mr. Badresh Shah of Department of Textile Engineering, Faculty of Technology and Engineering, the Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda for extending their facilities for executing the tensile strength and air-permeability test in their laboratory.

I am also grateful to Mr. Adhikari, lab assistance, Department of Textile Chemistry Faculty of Technology and Engineering, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda who taught me how to use spectrophotometer for take reading of whiteness index and k/s values.

Sincere thanks to Mrs. Vandana, Department of Metallurgy, Faculty of Technology and Engineering, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda for helping me in the analysis of Scanning Electron Micrographs and E.D.S.

A special thought and gratitude goes to Prof. M.L.Gulrajani,, IIT, Delhi, for solving all my queries especially related to natural, dyes through e-mail.

I would also like to thank the faculty and staff of the Clothing and Textile Department, who assisted and encouraged me in various ways during my course of studies. I am especially grateful to all of them and sincere gratitude and appreciation is extended for their help at various phases of the investigation.

A big thanks to my class-mates Falguni, Mrs Sharmila Dua and Kruti for always being their whenever I needed their help and company.

I sincerely appreciate the effort of Mr. Nipin Paul and Sajan Thomas for doing statistical analysis for me.

I thank all my well wishers and friends especially Sunita, Anju, Avani, Neha, Priyanka, Kalpesh bhai, who were there whenever I needed them and otherwise.

A special thanks to Mr. Anuj Bhargava, for editing my thesis with such a special care.

What one achieves becomes insignificant if you can't share it with special people in your life. Words fail me in expressing my appreciation for my best friend Jahan whose dedication, love and persistent confidence in me, has taken the load off my shoulder.

One person whom I impossibly can not forget to thank is Chetan. Only through his unconditional friendship this could be made possible. Not many people are genuine as he is.

The most important people are my lovely parents, who deserve special mention for their unconditional encouragement, support and prayers. My father and my mother are the one who sincerely raised me with their caring and gentle love. Ritesh and Moni, thanks for being supportive and caring siblings.

Above all I thank Almighty God for his blessings.
