

Acknowledgement

While this thesis represents an individual research work, it's important to acknowledge that the achievement of all the proposed objectives was made possible through the collective efforts of numerous individuals, including myself and my research supervisors. The successful completion of this research work would not have been feasible without the direct or indirect support and well-wishes of many people. As I approach the conclusion of this research work, I would like to take this moment to extend my heartfelt gratitude to all those who have made contributions, in various capacities, towards the successful completion of this thesis.

First of all, I want to express my heartfelt gratitude to my Ph.D. research supervisors, Prof. Arun Pratap and Prof. Prafulla K. Jha, for having unwavering confidence in me right from our initial interactions. It is their continuous support and belief in my abilities that enabled me to excel during my doctoral research. I feel incredibly fortunate to have had the opportunity to work under their guidance, which marked the beginning of my research career. They provided me with invaluable guidance and trained me to collaborate effectively within a diverse group and encouraged me to work independently.

Next, I would also like to acknowledge my school teachers for their guidance and for imparting a comprehensive understanding of the subject. Their efforts played a pivotal role in nurturing my interest in the subject. Also, I would like to extend my acknowledgements to the teaching and non-teaching staff members in the Xavier's University and School of Science College in Gujarat University. They constantly motivated me throughout my studies to excel and gain more profound knowledge.

The atmosphere in our "CCMPLAB" group influenced me a lot and motivated me to work harder and solve complex problems in an easier manner. I am thankful to my seniors, Dr. Shweta Dabhi, Dr. Nidhi Astik, Dr. Som Narayan, Dr. Basant Roondhe, Dr. Deepak Upadhyay, Dr. Bhumi Baraiya, Dr. Vaishali Sharma, Dr. Anjali Patel, Dr. Trupti Gajaria and Dr. Sharad Pillai for their constant motivation and support as friends. I am also thankful to my lab mates Darshil, Sourav and Hemang for their support. They created alive atmosphere in the lab while my thesis-writing so that I could concentrate better.

Most importantly, I would like to express my heart-felt gratitude and sincere acknowledgement to my brother-in-law, Dr. Jigar Inamdar and my father-in-law Mr. Vasant D. Inamdar who were the one's to have faith in me to pursue my doctoral studies. Also, I wish to extend my gratitude and acknowledgement to my grandparents and parents, Late Mr. Vishnuprasad D. Brahmbhatt, Mrs. Madhukantaben V. Brahmbhatt, Mr. Jayesh V. Brahmbhatt, Mrs. Divya J. Brahmbhatt, Mrs. Smita V. Inamdar for their constant support and blessings. Further, I would like to acknowledge Mrs. Vibha J. Inamdar, Mr. Swapnil J. Brahmbhatt, Mrs. Kajal S. Brahmbhatt, Mr. Pathik J. Brahmbhatt and my husband Mr. Nishant Inamdar for their constant support which has enabled me to face all the challenges through my research work. They have stood by me during all tough times, guided me with their precious knowledge, induced in me the value of education and humbleness towards others. I appreciate the support of all my family members and friends for their understanding and unconditional support.

Last but not the least, I present my sincere acknowledgment to the Department of Science and Technology (DST), New Delhi for providing me with DST-PURSE fellowship.
