

LIST OF PLATES

No.	Title	Page
I a&b	Moist mixed forest patches of the sanctuary	ix
II a	Dry mixed deciduous forest near Waghumar	x
II b	A view of dry mixed deciduous forest near Bhilvasi	x
III a	Riverine vegetation near Kanjal	xi
III b	Another example of riverine vegetation near Shisha	xi
IV a	Pond heron a common bird near forest streams and marshes	xii
IV b	Little Egret with a nestling: not a common a sight	xii
V a	Blackwinged Kite one of the common raptors	xiii
V b	Crested Hawk Eagle (immature)	xiii
VI a	Crested Serpent Eagle perched on a large foliated tree	xiv
VI b	Spotted Owlet near its favourite habitat-dry and dead trees	xiv
VII a	Redwattled Lapwing a common bird in scrubland	xv
VII b	Blossom headed Parakeet perched on a thorny bush near human habitation	xv
VIII a	Indian Roller a very common bird in all parts of the sanctuary	xvi
VIII b	Baya with its nest agricultural practice may increase their number	xvi