

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Completion of my doctoral thesis was only possible with the help and encouragement by numerous people. I do not have words to thank them enough.

First and foremost, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my mentor and guide, Dr. Reena Bhatia, Assistant Professor at the Department of Clothing and Textiles, Faculty of Family and Community Sciences, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, who has seen potential in me and suggested that I take up study on such an ingenious craft. Her valuable guidance, constant support and motivation, constructive feedback, and immense patience kept me motivated in difficult times. I am extremely grateful to her for her input and guidance whenever I got stuck in between the studies. Her guidelines and innovative ideas helped to take the study to the next level. My sincere gratitude to her for always being there when I needed her support, reviewing my progress, and guiding me throughout my study. I am truly grateful to her!

I am thankful to Prof. Uma Iyer, Dean, Faculty of Family and Community Sciences and In-charge Head, Department of Clothing and Textiles, Faculty of Family and Community Sciences, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda for her valuable support.

I would extend my sincere thanks to Prof. Anjali Karolia, former Dean, Faculty of Family and Community Sciences, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda for her critical and meaningful feedbacks during progressive seminars. Her suggestions and motivating words inspired me to continue with my studies. Being her student and completing the course work for several subjects under her guidance was an excellent learning opportunity. Her advice and perspective on things enabled me to develop and learn.

I would also like to extend my thanks to Prof. Madhu Sharan, former Head, Department of Clothing and Textiles, Faculty of Family and Community Sciences, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, for her immense support and guidance whenever required.

The faculty members at the institute have been really kind to extend their support and guidance whenever approached, and I do hereby acknowledge all of them.

In addition to this, I would like to mention the support of the Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR) for giving me the opportunity to be awarded a Centrally Administered Doctoral Fellowship for two years.

I am grateful to all the craftsmen of Pethapur as my respondents for taking the time to respond every time I asked for it and helping me understand the details of the craft as many times I have asked for it. In addition to this, I would like to thank all of them for their patience and respect that they showed me whenever I asked them to be present for meetings. Thanks to all of their family members for their support and warmth.

I extend my thanks to all the printers and privileged observers who were the respondents to the study for taking time from their busy schedules to respond to questions on the phone as well as to those whom I visited physically.

I want to thank block printer Afzal Buttiwala, from a family of Saudagiri Printers, for his invaluable support and for sharing all the information regarding trade enthusiastically.

A special thanks to Mala Sinha ma'am and Pardeep Sir, Bodhi, Vadodara, and Suchitra ma'am for giving me the opportunity to be a part of a talk and exhibition on the life history of Shri Maneklal Gajjar.

I am grateful to Mr. G.D. Acharya, Principal, Atmitya Institute of Technology and Engineering, Rajkot, for validating the interview schedule for ergonomics as an expert and helping me understand ergonomics.

In addition, I would like to mention the help and facility provided for exploration using a CNC machine by Mr. Paresh Soni, Shubham Wire Cut, Vatva GIDC, Ahmedabad. I am thankful enough to him for taking out time, his readiness to do exploration, and providing all the information I asked for.

I also want to thank Mr. Kuldip Basiya, an experienced person, for helping me out with understanding CNC machines and analysing the developed wood block.

I want to extend my thanks to Mr. Hetal Pathak, Mr. Indravadan Chavda, Mr. Jignesh Kumar, and the entire team of Hastkala Setu Yojna for their support and collaboration.

I also want to thank all the government officials at Sachivalay, Udyog Bhavan, District Industries Centre, Indext C, and Garvi Gurjari for providing information regarding various schemes.

I would like to thank Gujarat National Law University (GNLU), Gandhinagar, for inviting me to the GI awareness workshop.

A special thanks to Shri Narottam Sahoo Sir, Advisor, Gujarat Council of Science and Technology (GUJCOST), Satya Sridevi Pogaru ma'am, for their valuable suggestions and guidance and for giving permission to use the GI logo on the website and DIY kits for the promotion of craft. I extend my thanks to Avni Vaira, ma'am, and the Aadhar Trust for being behind me every time. Her continuous guidance, support, and encouragement kept me going ahead.

I am grateful to Vivek Desai. Navjivan Trust, Ahmedabad, for providing space for the craft demonstration and display of DIY kits. I extend my thanks to Indulal Parekh School of Architecture (IPSA) for giving me the opportunity to conduct a workshop and arrange a DIY kit display.

I feel fortunate to have received enormous support and encouragement from my friends, Nidhi, Harsh, and Nikhil, all through the course of my study. Their willingness to accompany me during the field study despite my busy schedule owes more than I can mention. I am also thankful to my dear friends Shruti, Shital, and Vibha for being there on call whenever I asked for any help or cleared my doubts. I would also like to thank my friend, Heena, for taking care of me during my long stay at her house with regards to my work.

Amrita ma'am, Sukriti didi, Jennifer, Arpita, and Ankita have all extended their valuable support through their personal and scholarly interactions. My thanks to my PhD batchmates Chhavi, Gurvinder, and Ankita for their help and guidance with regards to all the official work required for the submission of the synopsis, payment of fees, and thesis.

Finally, but most importantly, I would like to thank my parents, my in-laws, and my entire family for their immeasurable amount of support, care, and encouragement. This work owes more to them than I can say. Their unwavering faith, efforts, patience, and unconditional love till the end made it possible. I would like to mention here my mother-in-law, Nayana Bhatt, for her immense support and for being my backbone by taking all responsibilities at home and taking care of my son throughout my study. She has been the pillar of my strength all throughout the study. Last but not least, I thank my husband, Hardik, for his faith, patience, moral support, and efforts throughout these many years. I would also like to add the indirect support of my son, Aarav, for being so cooperative and understanding at such a young age.

I express my deep gratitude to God for blessing me with people around me and all his blessings in the completion of my work.

Vandita Bhatt

PhD Scholar