

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Undertaking the Ph.D. program has truly been a life-changing experience for me and it would not have been possible to do without the support and guidance that I have received from many people including my well wishers, my friends, colleagues and various institutions. Today, as I am penning down this part of the thesis, I find it very difficult to express my gratitude in words. These last four years have not only developed my scientific understandings, but also have helped me to be a better human being. There are numerous people who influenced both these aspects of my life in last four years. I would like to acknowledge those who contributed in many ways to the success of this study and made it an unforgettable experience for me.

अज्ञानतिमिरान्धस्य ज्ञानाञ्जनशलाकया ।

चक्षुरुन्मीलितं येन तस्मै श्रीगुरवे नमः ॥

“Salute to the guru who, with the brush of knowledge, opened the eyes of people who were blinded by the darkness of ignorance.”

First of all, I would like to thank God Shree Krishna for giving me the strength to complete my doctoral study and give me such a beautiful life. I am filled with immense gratitude as I pen down my heartfelt appreciation for my spiritual guru, Pandurang Shastri Athavale (Dadaji). For me Dadaji is like my friend, philosopher and guide. Dadaji has been a guiding light, leading me on a path of self-discovery, inner peace, and spiritual awakening. Through their teachings, wisdom, and compassionate guidance, I have gained insights that have not only transformed my spiritual understanding but have also influenced every aspect of my life, that help me a lot for my research work to concentrate my focus on research. In moments of confusion and darkness, Dadaji has provided the light of wisdom, helping me navigate the complexities of life with grace and resilience. Their teachings have become a source of solace and inspiration, shaping my perspective and instilling a sense of purpose and gratitude.

I would also like to express my deepest gratitude to Jayshree Talwalkar (Didiji), whose unwavering support and wisdom have been instrumental in shaping my personal and professional journey. Didiji has been more than a teacher; they have been a source of inspiration, encouragement, and profound knowledge. I also like to thankful to my entire family of Swadhyay Parivar. This journey with Swadhyay Parivar has been a sacred dance of learning, unlearning, and self-realization. I express my sincere appreciation for the patience, kindness, and boundless wisdom that Swadhyay Parivar has generously shared on this spiritual path. With deep reverence and gratitude, I extend my thanks to Dadaji, Didiji and Swadhyay Parivar for being not just a spiritual guide but a beacon of love and enlightenment in my life.

I would like to express my deep and sincere gratitude to my supervisor, Dr. Naveen Kumar Acharya, Applied Physics Department, Faculty of Technology and Engineering, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Vadodara, Gujarat, India, for giving me this great opportunity to work on this fascinating subject in a pleasant environment and his inspiring enthusiasm and meticulous planning, which helped me immensely to forge ahead in my research work. He always motivated me to join Ph.D. Words are not sufficient to write about your contribution in my life, “Sir”. He always made me to believe in myself. Whenever, I asked him a question, he always gave me 3 to 4 books to find it out and during this searching I found at least 2-3 additional answers. I think that was the actual moment that inspire to do Ph.D. I am very much obliged to the almighty for giving me a golden opportunity to work under such a dedicated and principled personality. He gave me complete freedom and support to do the things in the way I wanted. I feel blessed to have a mentor like him. Without his erudite help this work would not have seen the day of light.

I am thankful to UGC for providing me fellowship during my research work and the entire research reported in this thesis was generously supported by the University Grants Commission (UGC), New Delhi, with its major funding under the Scheme of NET JRF(1217/(CSIR-UGC NET DEC. 2018)). I also thankful to the Applied Physics Department for providing the facility under the DST-FIST (SR/FST/PS-II/2017/20) scheme and DST-PURSE (SR/PURSE/PS- II/2018/28).

I am thankful to Dr. C. G. Limbachiya, Head of the Department and Prof. Dhanesh Patel, Dean, Faculty of Technology and Engineering for providing me research facilities. A thank from the core of my heart is given to Dr. B. S. Chakrabarty for his inspiration and unconditional support during my research work. I am also thankful to my all teachers of department for their constant encouragement.

A Special thanks to Mr. Hiten Raval (Asst. Prof.) to inspire me for Ph.D., I want to express my deepest appreciation for the time you've generously shared the knowledge of research work through insightful discussions.

My special thanks to my senior cum mentor Dr. Avani Patel, without her constant motivation and support during the tough times, I would never been where I am today and also with whom I started learning the Membrane Technology. She helped me in understanding to developing the entire system and who taught me about how to plan your entire research journey. I successfully overcame many difficulties and learned a lot. Her idea and valuable suggestions helped me to carry out the project works and without her generous guidance and constant feedback, this Ph.D. would not have been achievable. Her deep insights and encouragements have helped me in various stages of my work.

I am highly indebted and thoroughly grateful to my wonderful friends for their continuous support and encouragements, which helped in maintaining the positive work culture. Firstly, I would like to thank to Dr. Nakul Soni and Dr. Kevil Shah, Whenever, I approached to them regarding any problem, they always gave some fruitful suggestions. Thanks to Mr. Dhaval Chauhan for his continuous support and motivation as an elder brother. Him positivity has helped to push myself and overcome challenging situations and Him unflinching courage and conviction always inspires me. One of the most knowledgeable peoples whom I met during my Ph.D.

I would also like to thank one of my senior Ms. Shivani Patel, her friendly behavior helped me a lot to understand about writing of research paper easily and their constant support always encouraged me to do some basic and fruitful science during Ph.D. I also thankful to Mr. Navin Chuadhary, our well known ‘happiest person’, Whenever, I struggle with my work his unstoppable comedy and fear free nature supporting me to take up this endeavor and giving me happiness during this entire time. Also, I am grateful to Mr. Kausal Agheda for their kind support and his always ready to help me willingly and boost my motivation towards the research. Through our shared spiritual practices, conversations, and explorations of the divine, I’ve witnessed the beauty of a kindred spirit walking beside me. He is an excellent person who not only cares about me but for everyone.

A very special thanks to other friends including Mr. Subhash Utadiya, Ms. Smruti Parikh, Ms. Neha Barad, and Ms. Pinal Mer for their support and providing friendly atmosphere and they had always been there to push me and motivate me, and taught me the real meaning of the sentence; “A journey is easier when you traveled together.” I am thankful to Ms. Margi Patel and Mr. Naresh Degda, few results mentioned in this thesis would not have been possible without them help for instrumental analysis. Thanks to Mr. Ravi Chudasama for their help and facilities whenever I needed. I would also like to acknowledge Mr. Vishvjit Chavada, our well known “Graphic Designer”.

I also very much thankful to Mr. Aadil Multani for helping me in an experimental part of my work and also maintain happy and peaceful environment in our lab. I owe a great deal of appreciation to him. They all are an integrated part of my Ph.D. and all who encouraged and supported me in every possible way.

Last but not the least, I would like to thank my family for all their love and encouragement. For my parents who raised me with an interest toward science and supported me in all my pursuits and understanding of my goals and aspirations. My parents infallible love and support has always been my strength. Their patience and sacrifice will remain my inspiration throughout my life. Without their support, I would not have been able to complete much of what I have done and become who I am. I owe my deepest gratitude towards my brother Mr. Neel Patel, I do not have words, to express my gratitude for his continuous support to complete this research work. I am taking a moment to express my heartfelt gratitude for the incredible role you've played in my life. In times of challenge, you've been my unwavering pillar, offering encouragement and wise counsel. Your belief in my abilities has been a guiding light, pushing me to overcome obstacles and strive for excellence. Whether it's sharing a laugh during tough times or providing a listening ear, your companionship has been a source of comfort and understanding. As a brother, you've not only been a family member but also a true friend. Thank you for being my confidant, my partner in crime, and most importantly, my brother. I am blessed to have you in my life, and I look forward to many more shared moments and milestones in the future. I would like to thank my entire family for their constant support towards my work. They believed in me and encouraged me to fulfill my dreams. I salute them for their selfless love, care and sacrifice, which helped me to achieve whatever I have today.
