

Acknowledgement

I take this opportunity to express my sincere gratitude to Prof. Sachin Ketkar, under whose aegis and able guidance I could accomplish this herculean task. Without his incessant encouragement and unflinching support, this work would not have seen the light of the day. I have benefited immensely by his erudition and valuable suggestions. I truly appreciate his promptness in resolving my doubts and queries. His expert comments and extensive inputs have made my thesis rich.

I am thankful to the officiating Head of the Department, Prof Hitesh Raviya for the cooperation he has rendered. I wish to thank Prof Madhurita Chaudhary, Prof Deeptha Achar and Dr Rajan Barret, the teachers of Department of English, MSU Baroda for their expert advice and extended discussions that have greatly improved my thesis.

I am also indebted to the Library staff of Hansa Mehta library and department library for helping me find the relevant books and journals for my research.

I extend my gratefulness to my parents, Mrs. Manjulaben and Mr. Bhupatbhai Vitthani, my brother Anil, my sister Paras and my dearest wife Rachna for their moral support and inspiration that made me accomplish this task. I would fail in my duty if I do not acknowledge the contribution of my children Shree, Yug and Himalay who had to bear with my absence (physical and mental) during the course of my research.

I sincerely thank the Heads of my Institute, Mr Mahendra V. Soni and Dr. Mukesh Goyani, for being generous and considerate to have relieved me of my duties whenever it was necessary. I would like to thank my colleagues for their whole-hearted support.

I am highly grateful to my friends Dr. Gauri Handa and Col Saras for proofing my thesis, Dr. Navghan Divraniya for being there in all odds, Dr. Mihir Upadhyay for solving my queries and Ms. Nazmin Kathawala for her prayers. I thank all my friends for their encouragement.

Kirti B. Vitthani