The present monograph is an outcome of the support and encouragement extended from several quarters. I acknowledge my indebtedness to each one of them with a sense of deep gratitude.

Prof. Adhya B. Saxena, Ph. D. Supervisor made me learn niceties of the 'historical craft' with great endurance and her ever reminding phrase 'practise makes a man perfect' is a watchword for me. She graciously accompanied me to research repositories a first step in the arena of academics. Dr. I. A. Khan one of the senior teachers taught me to comprehend and streamline research questions during the coursework held at the Department of History in 2013. I would like to mention Shree Hasmukh Shah, the patron of Darshak Itihas Nidhi, Vadodara based NGO dedicated to the cause of historical research for providing me opportunity to attend 03 International Symposiums on 'Port Towns of Gujarat', 'Trans-regional Trade and Traders: Situating Gujarat in the Indian Ocean' and 'The Sea and Knowledge' in 2012, 2013 & 2014 held at Daman, Surat & Bharuch respectively. I could benefit out of these symposiums in terms of interaction with scholars like Charles Beeker, M. N. Pearson, Sara Keller, Aparna Kapadia, Abdul Sheriff, Edward Alpers, Ranbir Chakravarti, Rubi Maloni, Edward Simpson, Douglas Haynes, Lakshmi Subramanian, Radhika Seshan, Mariam Dossal, A. B. Rajshirke, Chhaya Goswami and many others, which inculcated in me burning passion to pursue the Indian Ocean Studies. I owe a lot to all these scholars and many more whose work I have cited in the present monograph.

Completion of the writing of the thesis was not possible without the financial support from ICHR and ICSSR. ICHR-New Delhi awarded me two year Doctoral Fellowship and Western Regional Centre, ICSSR-Mumbai sponsored 20 days field trip to work in archives and libraries in Mumbai. Under UGC DRS-I programme, I was financed to undertake another fieldtrip to Mumbai in May, 2018. I am also blessed with teaching assignments awarded to me as Visiting Faculty (2016-17) & Temporary Assistant Professor (2017-18 & 2018-19) at the Department of History, Faculty of Arts; and as Visiting Faculty at the Faculty of Law, The M. S. University of Baroda, Vadodara (2018-19).

I, therefore, would like to thank students for inculcating in me a hardworking teacher.

Principal Investigator, UGC Major Research Project (Late) Dr. Hitendra J. Maurya of the project "Potentialities and Process of Deforestation and Conservation: A Case Study of South Gujarat c.1750-c.1960", allowed me to gain experience in research on Gujarat's history as project fellow. He made me learn how to locate files in archives and procure them. His early demise left me shattered but his spirit of 'never give up' made me work throughout.

I am thankful to all teachers in due process of learning of Modern Indian History: Prof. Gita Bajpai, Prof. Raj Kumar Hans, Prof. Vibhuti Parikh, Prof. Aruna Awasthi, Dr. Dilip Kataria and Dr. Maitree Vaidya of the Department of History, The M. S. University of Baroda.

Senior research scholars of my Department- Dr. Samira Sheikh, (Vanderbilt University-USA), Dr. Bina Sengar (Fulbright Fellow & Faculty member at Aurangabad University), Dr. Richa Sharma (Faculty member at GNLU-Gandhinagar) need special thanks for taking good care of me whenever I visited their University libraries or asked for digital versions from their institutes. Samira Sheikh has inspired me in several ways by engaging me with her project.

Kind gratitude is due to Prof. Radhika Seshan (Pune University); Ms. Rupali Warke (University of Texas); Dr. Sudev Seth (Harvard Business School), Mr. N. Jonsan Singh (CHS-JNU), Dr. Avtar Singh, (Devi Ahilya Vishwavidyalaya, Indore) & Dr. Hemant Mistry (MSU-Baroda) for helping me to acquire softcopies from various digital portals.

I would also like to acknowledge Prof. Parimal J. Vyas, Honorable Vice-Chancellor, The M. S. University of Baroda and the Registrar, Engr. N. K. Ojha,, Prof. P. S. Choondawat, Prof. Amit Dholakia and Prof. K. Krishnan-Dean, Faculty of Arts, Dr. Mayank Trivedi, University Librarian and Shree Jigar Inamdar; Mr. Tushar Kunte and Mr. Ramesh Bariya of Department of History for supporting me in administrative process required as per the Ordinance of Ph.D.

Staff of the National Archives, Central Library, Jawaharlal Nehru University, ICHR Library and ICSSR Library, New Delhi; Maharashtra State Archives, Fort Library & J. N. Library-Mumbai University, Mumbai; Gujarat State Archives, Vadodara and Gandhinagar for tremendous support while I was digging for research material. Rathvabhai, Barotbhai, Minaben, Bariabhai and Baghabhai needs special mention. I wrote the monograph sitting in the calm environs of Smt. Hansa Mehta Library and therefore I place my gratitude to entire library staff.

Mr. Bhagirath Prasad and Mr. Sukanta Kumar Saha of Geography Department, Faculty of Science, the M. S. University of Baroda, Vadodara helped me in making maps as per the information in text.

Chief Warden Prof. Vijaya Parmar, Staff and Hostel-mates of Dr. Vikram Sarabhai Hall of Residence supported me in odd and even circumstances as I was away from my native in Manipur. I always felt at home.

My parents and Sister Bilashini had been constant inspiration to continue with the studies despite all odds at their end. Wife Lily and niece Rishita had been my strength; and younger brother Premjit was always on my side as he was taking care when I was away from home.

Last but not least, I owe to Krutarth and Neha who had been my students but they helped me place my work in perspective whether it was typing, scanning, or proofreading. They helped me in late hours whenever I got stuck with software or hardware issues in my laptop. Vicky & Chirag helped by carrying out my outdoor responsibilities in the last round getting stationery or xeroxing from Smt. H. M. Library.
