

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

With the blessings of God Almighty I am pleased to present my Ph.D. thesis entitled “Declining Sex Ratio in Gujarat: A Socio-Demographic Analysis”. It is rightly said that “A Good Teacher not only teaches, but also inspires his students”. I take this opportunity of expressing my sincere and warm gratitude to my “Guru”; my “Ideal” and my research guide respected “Professor Pradeep Singh Choondawat”, Dean, Faculty of Arts; Offg. Head, Department of Sociology, Faculty of Arts; Chief Warden, Halls of Residence, The M.S.University of Baroda and Foreign Student Advisor, The M.S.University of Baroda, Gujarat. His guidance and encouragement made this study possible. It’s a privilege for me to have such a guiding “Guru” who inspired and supported me throughout my research work. I feel proud to be his student. I express my deepest and sincere sense of indebtedness to him, and hope that he will continue the same support and encouragement in my future endeavors.

I thankfully acknowledge the support provided by the teaching and non teaching staff of the Department of Sociology, The M.S.University of Baroda. I am also grateful to the staff of PRC of Baroda; Directorate of the Gujarat Census Operation Gandhinagar; and CWDS, Delhi for assisting me in my research work.

I am extremely thankful to my family members, my father Dr.Ramakant Sharma, mother Smt. Suman, my sister Harshita and my wife Shikha who supported me throughout my research in many ways.

I dedicate this research as a tribute to my Great Grandfather Late Shri Shohan lal ji, Grandfather Shri Udainand ji, Maternal Grandfather Late Shri Dwarkesh ji, Maternal Uncle (Mama) Late Shri Kalish Chandra ji, and my brother late Shri Ankur ji. There continuous blessings made my research work possible.

My friends and relatives always extended all kinds of support to me during this research. I am very much thankful to them for their support. I am thankful to my friend Mr.Virendra Singh Chundawat who helped me in giving support to the dissertation. I am also thankful to Dr. Ajay Chaudaury for assisting me in analytical work of my research work.

Last but not the least I thank all the respondents and stakeholders of this study for their cooperation and for sparing valuable time from their busy schedule and for patiently giving me the relevant and required data for the study.

Anant Sharma

Department of Sociology

The M.S.University of Baroda