

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

With a deep sense of gratitude I acknowledge my indebtedness to (late) Dr. D.R. DARJI, former Reader, Department of Educational Administration, Faculty of Education and Psychology, M.S. University of Baroda, under whom I registered for my Doctoral programme.

After the sudden demise of Dr. D.R. Darji the research work was carried on under the able and distinguished guidance of Dr. P.K. DONGRE, Dean, Faculty of Education and Psychology, M.S. University of Baroda. It was a great pleasure and privilege to carry on the investigation under the erudite scholarship and inspiring help given by him at every stage of my work. No words can adequately express my deep sense of indebtedness and gratitude to this eminent educator.

I take this opportunity to thank profusely Dr. M.S. YADHAV, present Dean, Faculty of Education and Psychology, M.S. University of Baroda for his invaluable guidance and help in submission of this Thesis after the retirement of my esteemed Prof. Dr. P.K. Dongre.

I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to Dr. K.T. CHRISTOPHER, Professor and Head, Department of Education, Government College of Education, Madras-15 and Dr. P.S. BALASUBRAMANIAN, Reader in Education, University of Madras for their esteemed help and encouragement.

I am indebted to Prof. M.S. MOORTHY, Department of Education, Government College of Education, Pudukkottai and to Prof. C.V. VENKATACHALAM of the Government College of Education, Madras-15 for their unstinted co-operation and technical assistance in my endeavour.

I record my great appreciation for the co-operation extended by Smt. S.S. Padhya, the Librarian of CASE, Baroda for her valuable assistance and to the Computer Centre, I.I.T., Madras for computerising the data.

I am specially thankful to Mr. K.S.S. Sugantharajan and to Mr. P. Ananthakrishnan for their personal interest and care in typing the manuscripts neatly.

I wish to place on record a special note of thanks and appreciation to the Indian Council of Social Science Research, Delhi for extending financial support to this work.

My special thanks are due to my wife Mrs. Jayakumari Sundararaj for her sustained encouragement and help during this research work.

Over and above all, my most humble gratitude should go to my Lord and Saviour, JESUS, who enabled me to accomplish this long cherished work for His glory.
