

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I offer my deep sense of gratitude to my Guide Dr. Manjuli Gon, Reader, Department of Psychology, Faculty of Education and Psychology, The M.S. University of Baroda. It was my privilege to work under her. She opened new horizons in my academic life, and sowed the seeds of present work. I am deeply indebted to her for her active concern, scholarly guidance and critical comments without which the work would not have been completed.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to the Government of India for offering me a scholarship and to the Government of the People's Republic of Bangladesh for granting me deputation which have enabled me to carry out this study.

I am also grateful to Professor D.B. Desai, Dean, Faculty of Education and Psychology, and Dr. N.S. Pathak, Professor and Head, Department of Psychology, M.S. University of Baroda for their help.

I am grateful to those Principals of the colleges in Bangladesh who have provided me with the facilities for data collection. I owe a large debt to all those students who participated in the study as subjects and enabled me to carry out the study.

I am also indebted to Dr. M. Shreehari, Professor and Head, Department of Statistics, and Dr. J.R. Singhal, Reader,

Department of Mathematics, M.S. University of Baroda for helpful suggestions regarding the statistical analysis of my research data.

My thanks are to the staff of the M.S. University Computer Centre, Baroda, and Physical Research Laboratory, Ahmedabad, for computerizing my research data.

I am grateful to Professor J.B. Rotter, University of Connecticut; Dr. T. Gilmer, The York University; Dr. B. Strickland, University of Massachusetts, who have facilitated my research by sending me reprints of their articles on locus of control.

I take this occasion to record my thanks to the Librarians and Staff of Smt. Hansa Mehta Library, Baroda; Centre for Advance Studies in Education, Baroda; Indian Institute of Management, Ahmedabad; Ahmedabad Textile Industries Research Association; B.M. Institute, Ahmedabad; National Council of Education Research and Training, New Delhi; All India Institute of Medical Science, New Delhi; National Medical Library, New Delhi; for giving me all library facilities.

I wish to thank Mr. T.Y. Kanitkar and Mr. J.M. Sinnarkar, Draftsman, Department of Geography, M.S. University of Baroda, for drawing a map of Bangladesh, and Mr. A.S. Karkhanis for preparing the graphs, and Miss Uma Vaja for preparing some of the figures of this thesis. I appreciate
