

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I wish to place on record my sincere appreciation for all those persons and organizations who extended their help and cooperation required for this research.

I would like to acknowledge the help and encouragement that I received from my parents and all family members. Their constant support throughout the endeavour made me move ahead and finally give shape to my work.

I am extremely thankful to Dr. C. N. Daftuar, my guide, whose constant guidance since the very first day of deciding the research topic had been a profound source of inspiration for completing the dissertation. I am grateful to him for sparing time for the insightful discussions at various stages of work. I would like to thank him sincerely to give enough space to present own ideas and suggestions.

Dr. Maria Xavier had been of great help in clearing my doubts in using one of the statistical techniques, which was quite new to me.

I would like to extend my thanks to Dr. N. S. Pathak (Ex. Dean, Faculty of Education and Psychology), Dr. Maria Xavier, faculty members of Faculty of Management and Faculty of Social Work, Railway Staff College, for the evaluation of the new instrument.

The contact persons in various organizations had been of tremendous help in data collection. I would like to thank Mrs. Neeta Krishnan (DDE-ORG), Mrs. Nanda Dave (Alembic), Mr. Karnad (Alembic), Mr. A. K. Nigam (RSC), Mr. Bhatia (GEB), Mr. Darade (FAG), Miss Rekha and Miss Rashmi.

I would like to extend my sincere thanks to the concerned persons, in the Hansa Mehta Library, M. S. University, Baroda; Centre for Advance Studies in Education (CASE), Baroda; Information Centre of Social Science, Baroda; Library of Railway Staff College, Baroda; and Library of Indian Institute of Technology (IIT), Kanpur. Without their permission to refer to the related literature, it would have been difficult to proceed in the research.

Thanks a lot and best wishes to three youngsters, Mini, Shantanu, and Mamta who help me in their way.

Thanks to Mr. Bansal for doing a part of statistical analysis on computer.

Last but not least, I thank Mr. Chalke for the neat typing of this dissertation.

S-S (Shruti Nigam)
