AKNOWLEDGEMENT

I owe a deep gratitude to a lot of people for the completion of my thesis.

First and foremost I want to thank God Almighty for showing me the way.

I thank my guide Dr Urmi Biswas, Associate professor, department of psychology for her help and suggestions as a guide and as a person. Her continuous support and encouragement has been immense. I am indeed fortunate to have worked under her.

I would like to thank Dr Urvashi Shah, Neuropsychologist, KEM hospital, Mumbai, who is instrumental in seeding the idea of my doing a research work.

I would like to thank Dr Bimla Parimu former Head of Department of Psychology who helped me whenever her valuable suggestions were required.

I am extremely grateful to Dr Madhuri Kulkarni Head, Department of Pediatric Neurology, Sion Hospital, Mumbai, for her guidance in the initial stages of my study.

I am thankful to Dr Ghosh, Professor and Head, Department of statistics, and Saurashtra University for his help and suggestions in data analysis in the initial stages of my study.

I am also thankful to Dr Rashmin Sompura, Assistant Professor, Department of Psychology for his guidance.

My sincere thanks to all the principals and heads and teachers of RajKumar College, New Era school, Vidyaniketan School and Deepshikha Play house for all the help and support during the course of the study and data collection.

My deepest gratitude is to each and every child who participated in the study and made this possible.

Last but not the least, I am thankful to my family for their blessing and unfailing faith in me. My parents (both sets) for all the support and belief in me. My husband and daughters, who tolerated my long absence, My hospital staff -Gerisha, Mona and Mansi for lending me technical support and providing valuable inputs.
