

Acknowledgment

It is with great pleasure and much appreciation that I acknowledge many individuals who helped me to complete this huge academic work. I would like to express my deep thanks and sincere gratitude to all of them.

Foremost, I would prefer to thank the Government and people of India especially Indian Council for Cultural Relations (ICCR) for providing me financial assistance in terms of scholarship to pursue my Doctoral Research work at one of the prestigious universities of India; The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda. Many thanks to the Government of Afghanistan, especially the Ministry of Higher Education as it really made possible for me to obtain the scholarship awarded by the ICCR.

I would also like to extend my special heartfelt thanks and appreciation to my Guide Prof. Satish P. Pathak [Department of Education (CASE), Faculty of Education and Psychology, The M.S.University of Baroda], for his continuous support in my research study and for his expert guidance throughout the course of study and valuable suggestions. It has been a pleasant learning experience to work under his knowledgeable guidance.

I extend my gratitude to Prof. R. C. Patel, Dean, Faculty of Education and Psychology & Head, Department of Education (CASE), The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda for his student centric approach, concern and valuable support.

Thanks to all my colleagues, particularly those working at the provincial Directorate of Education in Paktia. They have helped me a lot and made a great contribution to my research, particularly in data collection.

I would like to thank all the teachers of the Department of Education (CASE), Faculty of Education and Psychology, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda for their overall academic support in conducting this research. I extend my sincere thanks to all my fellow researchers at CASE, for their consistent support and motivation.

My grateful thanks to Mr. Shrimali Jitendrakumar, Librarian, Department of Education (CASE) and all the non-teaching staff members for their full-hearted cooperation and support.

I am deeply grateful to my entire family; my wife Nazdana Atif, my daughters Nadia Atif and Sadia Atif and my son Faisal Khan Atif for all their prayers, love, support and encouragement. I would not have been able to accomplish this research work without their inspiration and moral support. Finally, I thank all those who helped me directly or indirectly to make this work possible.

Vadodara
November, 2020

Noorajan Atif
Researcher