

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Words cannot express my heartfelt gratitude to my guide Dr. Neela A. Shelat, Reader, in the Centre for Advanced Study in Education (CASE) for her untiring help in going through this thesis and her perceptive remarks and comments. It is only due to her constant co-operation and encouragement that I was able to complete this study in a short span of time.

My thanks to Professor Dr. S. Roy, Head, CASE, who helped me in different ways during the course of the present study.

My thanks to Dr. M. M. Shah, Ex-Head of CASE, for her kind help and co-operation during the period of my registration for the study.

My thanks to Dr. N.S. Pathak, Dean of the Faculty of Education and Psychology and Dr. R.G. Kothari, Reader, CASE, for their suggestions of the statistical analysis of the data.

My thanks to Mrs. Sarojben Padhye, Librarian, CASE, for her help in procuring the books and encouragement.

My special thanks to the Authorities of Dhaka University, Bangladesh for giving me two years leave with some grant to pursue this study.

My thanks to the Authorities of Development Research Partners, Bangladesh, for the data processing and typing of the whole thesis.

My thanks to my father who is no more in this world, but whose past encouragement and guidance guided me to do the work.

My thanks to Mahbub, my husband for his constant academic help during the course of the present study.

My thanks to my sisters and my two little kids for their help and moral support while I was struggling with my triple role of a housewife, a mother and a researcher.

My thanks to the Principals, Teachers, Students of the Schools for their co-operations.

I thank all those who helped me directly or indirectly in completing this research work.
