

Acknowledgement

I extend my sincere thanks to The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Vadodara for providing me an opportunity to pursue Ph.D. in Department of Environmental Science along with my obligatory commitments towards the department as Assistant Professor (CES).

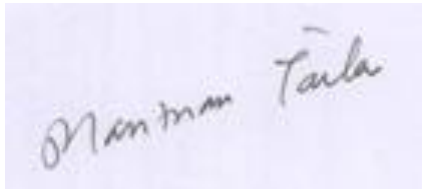

I extend my gratitude to my Ph.D. guide Dr. P. C. Mankodi, Professor, Department of Zoology, Faculty of Science, The Maharaja Sayajirao University for his continuous guidance and valuable suggestions without which the thesis would not be in the shape the way it is.

I am thankful to the Dean, Faculty of Science for granting me the opportunity to pursue higher studies. I am thankful to Dr. Arun Arya, Ex - Offg. Head, Department of Environmental Studies, for his continuous encouragement during the field work and laboratory work. I would sincerely like to thank him for allowing me to use the departmental facilities even on public holidays. I extend my thanks to Dr. Kauresh Vachhrajani, Offg. Head, Department of Environmental Studies for making an easy way during the last period of my research work and continuous encouragement for completion of the thesis writing part. I also thank Dr. D. G. Rathod and Dr. R. N. Jadeja, Associate Directors, Department of Environmental Studies who have continuously provided proper direction whenever I was stuck in any of the issue. I extent my thanks to the Director, Research and Consultancy cell for providing research grant to carry out research on one of the study site which paved the path for conceptualization of the current research work.

I thank my wife, Dr. Khushali Pandya for the help that she extended during the compilation of thesis. I also thank my younger brother Parth for his priceless contribution and help during the data analysis part. I extend my love to my dearest daughter Kaashvi who received a bit of less attention during my Ph.D. work. I am heartily thankful to my grandmother, my parents, other family members, friends, colleagues, teachers, non - teaching staff members of the department as well as research scholars for their continuous encouragement, guidance, help and support as and when needed.

I would like to extend my gratitude towards Dr. Neha Singh for her help in geospatial analysis and map preparation which has helped in making the thesis more aesthetic. I would also like to thank Ms. Shagufta Siddiqui and Mr. Azaz Sidat, for continuous help during the entire period of my Ph.D. I am indebted with the continuous help provided by Dr. Bablu Prasad and Dr. Priyanka Kanungo. I thank Ms. Himakshi Parmar for a number of fruitful discussions on the topic of water chemistry, sampling, innovative ideas of sampling, water quality indices to name a few.

I am thankful to one and all who were instrumental in completing my Ph.D. work. Apologies, if I have failed to acknowledge anyone due to oversight and I convey my gratitude for their support.
