

APPENDIX A

A₁ - SAMPLE STORIES OF ACHIEVEMENT
MOTIVATION

EXAMPLES OF n ACHIEVEMENT STORIES OF THE
STUDENTS IN THE SAMPLE

Picture No. 1 - Doctor and Patient

(1) Tribal Girl

The man's wife got a new child, that is why he is enjoying with his new born child.

He is very happy now and as he wanted a child, and longing for a long time.

He thought that the child will be a great man. He wanted a clever child.

The child become popular and great, and he will do many useful things for his father.

(2) Tribal Boy

The boy is sick, he is suffering stomach ache and something else. He is under the treatment of the doctor who is sitting.

He took some bad food. The doctor thought that he would prescribe for the boy good medicine. He wanted to be a famous doctor, and to cure the boy.

He will give the boy an injection, soon after he will recover.

(3) Non-Tribal Girl

The doctor and the person. The person is seriously sick and can hardly breathe.

The doctor is thinking that the patient should be removed to the hospital. He has always wanted to be a great surgeon.

In the hospital he will have better chances to cure the person.

The patient is operated and his illness is cured which made the doctor very happy.

(4) Non-Tribal Boy

A sick boy sitting with his father. His father wanted his son should be well so that he will be in a good position in college.

He is worried that his son may not be able to complete his study. He wanted him to be great scholar, and make a name for himself.

Unfortunately, his son did not recover and it led to bad circumstances.

Picture No. 2 - Tabla Teacher and Student

(1) Non-Tribal Boy

They are playing the tabla.

The boy wants to learn how to play tabla. So he went to the Guru and now the Guru is teaching him.

The boy wants to be an expert tabla player in the world.

The boy will learn very attentively, because the boy knows that where there is a will there is a way. And he will succeed.

(2) Tribal Boy

The music instrument teacher teaches his student music.

The student will learn very soon. The teacher is teaching him well, because the student wants it. He will be very good player.

The student will be well-known all over the world, and he will make this his profession.

(3) Non-Tribal Girl

Ram who is a well known artist is teaching his brother how to play the musical instrument.

The brother is very anxious that he learns to play, but he makes mistakes and wonder how he will become an efficient musician like him, this is his dearest wish.

Ram realizes that his brother is a beginner. But he is hopeful about his brother's capacity. And taught him till he became a good musician.

(4) Tribal Girl

The master is teaching his student how to beat the drum.

The student is very interested in music. But he could not follow very well. That is why the master is helping him how to do it.

The boy thought that he would be a great musician. And he wanted to be a great musician.

He will learn, and try hard to do it properly. The master will also try to give proper lessons. And boy will be an acclaimed musician.

Picture 3 - Boy Sitting on a Cot

(1) Non-Tribal Girl

The girl is studying now. She is studying very hard to get a good position. Since she is a brilliant student.

5

The girl is seriously studying her lesson. She is trying to get a first class because she wanted to be a great success.

If she gets first class, she will get a good job, and she will be honoured.

(2) Tribal Boy

The boy is reading in his study room. He has to read very attentively because he is weak in the study. Now he wants to improve. He is studying hard because he wants high positions in the class.

He will now compete with the other boys, then he will score the topmost position, and all will think how clever he is.

(3) Non-Tribal Boy

The boy is reading in his room. In the wall there is a picture of Gandhiji.

The boy is reading his book with a thought to stand first in class.

The boy will learn his lesson very soon and will be sure to stand first.

He will get a good job like I.A.S. Officer after his competition. And he will be very happy.

(4) Tribal Girl

The boy is looking at the picture of Mahatma Gandhi on the wall.

The boy was reading, and the picture made him think about his life.

He wants to be as good as Mahatma Gandhi. But not only for himself, but that all the people in India will also be like him.

He studies hard and became a great man in future.

Picture 4 - Boy, Ink-pot and Pen

(1) Tribal Girl

A boy came to a library. The book, inkpot and pen made by wood is at the front of the library.

He wonders when he sees it. The boy thought that his knowledge will be wide and want to know well.

He will be a great political leader after reading lots of books. He will read very hard to achieve it.

(2) Tribal Boy

A boy wanted a small pen because he is illiterate and small. The pen is too big for him.

Before that he could not get qualified because he is small.

Now he is trying to become a learned man. Because everyone has to secure some knowledge in his life.

He will try and will become successful. He has to try hard to become perfect.

(3) Non-Tribal Boy

The boy wanted to be a brilliant student in his life. He tries to take pen and ink for writing. These are the persons who wanted go up higher and higher.

This situation of a boy starting his life from childhood to adulthood.

He thought about the future life, he wanted to be very clever, and he some great person in the world.

All his wishes ~~is~~ now are coming true. He did all his works in a perfect way.

(4) Non-Tribal Girl

A dwarf found the pen, inkpot and book of the giant.

The dwarf was very anxious to know how great the giant is and so he found his way to the giant's house.

3

He thought the giant is a very powerful creature who could move the earth. He wished he was a giant too.

The dwarf tries to find the herbs to make him great and powerful. He wants to be a giant. But he is only a dwarf and very small by nature.

(5) Non-Tribal Girl

The boy wanted to take a pencil to write something in a book. He wanted to write a story of the past.

After he has written all will read the stories. And he will make literature richer than usual.

His book will be well known. He will print it and sell it, so all will know and follow the one who write such stories.

Picture 5 - Boys Playing Cricket

(1) Tribal Boy

Four boys are playing cricket.

These boys have known that many cricket players have become world famous.

So they also want to be cricket players of world renowned. For this reason they are practising now. Because they know that habit is second nature and this will make them expert.

They will continue their practising. After that they will compete with other teams of the world in order to get good name in the field of cricket.

(2) Tribal Girl

Some interesting game is being played in this picture. These are the persons who want ^{to} be the brilliant players.

There are four boys and they are filled with great interest.

They are thinking about who will get the prize. They want to be the winners and to get the prize.

It happened that the four boys are the winners, and their joys knew no bounds. They will be well known.

(3) Non-Tribal Girl

In this picture an interesting game is being played.

The boys thought that they will become the greatest sportsmen in the world.

Now they are thinking that more practice is necessary, for them to be perfect sportsmen.

They will be perfect. And will be demanded for further success to the world match.

(4) NonTribal Boy

The boys are playing cricket. After school they always play in the playground.

These small boys like to play cricket because all of them want to be the best players.

They thought all of them will become great players. At first they will play for their country and would win fame and be the pride of their country.

They will play everyday after school and they will be good and well known players for their state and the country they like.

Picture 6 - A Man Painting a Picture

(1) Tribal Girl

Here is a picture of a struggling artist who is trying to paint a picture through memory.

He had just been to a beautiful spot, but he did not have his painting materials since he is poor. He got inspiration.

The young artist is hoping that his painting will be a great success, and he will become a great artist at last.

1

The painting will be so good that everyone will appreciate it, and he will be awarded the first prize in the painting competition.

(2) Non-Tribal Girl

An artist boy is painting now.

Influenced by great artists, the boy is now able to paint pictures very nicely and carefully.

He wants to be a famous artist. He will go on painting. Thus, he will be world famous. And he will bring a new wave in the field of painting, by his creation.

(3) Tribal Boy

A man is painting a picture outside the office of a magistrate. He was a typist working under the magistrate.

He was getting bored of being a secretary because the magistrate had a superiority complex.

He thought he would practice painting and make himself master in arts. But it is wanted for him to practise art at home, not in the magistrate's office.

The magistrate will get angry with the secretary.

2

He will expel him from the job. The man will find another job and carry on with his painting at home.

(4) Non-Tribal Boy

John is drawing a scenery which he hopes to submit in the drawing competition of the college.

John thinks he is the best in class, and this will give him the opportunity to prove himself.

He is thinking how best he could draw so as to beat all others in the competition.

John is thinking of the different paints to make the picture of the scenery attractive, and thereby getting the first prize.

A₂ - SAMPLE STORIES OF FoF

EXAMPLES OF FOF STORIES WRITTEN BY THE STUDENTS

Picture 1 - Father and SonTribal Girl

(1) The father and the son were talking together. He told his son that he would like to prepare for his higher studies. The son did not agree to this.

The father wanted his son to get all the opportunities for his future and try to prepare for his journey.

The son thought it is useless for him because he wanted to become a good doctor.

The son then ran away from home and he went to study for his own aim.

Tribal Boy

(2) Your bad ways have been found out at last, son.

Drinking too much and gambling, has led to the situation.

How did this happen to my son? I cannot believe it is actually true. Please change, son, turn a new leaf and become good.

You are going to jail today. I hope, it helps you

2 to become good and teaches you a lesson never to do it again.

Non-Tribal Girl

(3) The father tells the son that he has arranged for his marriage.

The son told his father that he loves another girl and want to marry her. The father is telling him he cannot marry her. Both are thinking on the matter. But they need money for the wedding.

They do not have enough money, so it seemed impossible to marry at all.

Non-Tribal Boys

(4) Mr. Das and his son Ashok are in deep thought.

Ashok's son is kidnapped. These persons want money in return for the son.

Mr. Das and Ashok are thinking whether to give money or not. If they pay the money they will get back the child safely. They want the son safe and unhurt.

They decide to pay the money. They are sure their child would be returned safely.

3

Picture 2 - Man at MirrorTribal Girl

(1) They are talking to each other about the sad news of the family. The one facing is the friend of the other.

The facing man's wife suddenly met with an accident and the latter has to break the news, and this led up to the situation.

The facing man is taken back by the bolt from the blue news. At the same time his friend wanted to tell the sad story in a smooth way.

The facing man has to take up the sole responsibilities, and he will apply for help.

Non-Tribal Boy

(2) Will Mary recognize me? I've changed so much in ten years. I hope, she doesn't run away from me.

My staying abroad away from Mary for ten solid years.

I've grown so different in 10 years. God! please, please make her recognize me.

We will have tea together today. I've given her my snap so that she can spot me in the restaurant.

Non-Tribal Girl

(3) The young boy is looking at the mirror.

He has got some shocks.

He is thinking about his position. He wanted to take revenge.

He will take revenge and then he will go to jail.

Tribal Boy

(4) There is a Boss and his assistant, conversing with each other.

The Boss promised to give money to his assistant for committing murder.

But now the Boss deny to pay money to him. So the assistant became angry.

Now the assistant was fearing his Boss. He will disclose the murder to the public.

Picture 3 - Boy Sitting

Tribal Boy

(1) A poor boy sitting on the cot and thinking about his life.

It happened just after his parents has left him all alone.

He was thinking about his food, and so he will have to get a jon.

After getting a job, he can have his own food and so he will survive.

Tribal Girl

(2) The boy met a very bad circumstances due to the death of his father.

The death of his father made the boy to think very deeply.

He thought about his studies and found that he will not be able to go to school any more.

The boy will have to work hard in order to get food for himself and the family.

Non-Tribal Girl

(3) The boy is thinking deeply of his studies. He is scolded by his teacher for not knowing his lesson.

Because he did not study properly and listen to the lectures.

He thought next time he would try his best to capture the high position in class.

He will study much, work hard and his unfinished work will be done in no time.

Non-Tribal Boy

(4) What will happen to my future? What will I become? Will I be able to help my country?

My result wasn't very good this time. I'd better try harder, otherwise I'll get no where with my ambition.

Will I be able to succeed? I'll have to study so much, 5 years to become an M.B.B.S - it's so joke!

I'd better do it - I will become a doctor, in this way I can help the poor. I'll study very hard this year to get a seat in the medical college next year.

Picture 4 - The Man in the Office

Tribal Boy

(1) An officer is sitting in his office and thinking so deeply.

He was thinking about the quarrel with his wife in the morning.

He was thinking how to solve the problem to make

7 his wife understand about what he hasn't really done.

If she will not be angry with him then they will have a new life - but if she is then a divorce.

Non-Tribal Boy

The man is an important and great officer in the Department of Sociological Survey. He was thinking how to let the people develop in Science.

Due to the backwardness of the people, it has led the officer to think to make a plan in order that they will be able to progress.

He wanted that the country will be well developed in technology as is going on in the modern world.

At that time the people start progress and the whole country will be developed.

Tribal Girl

(3) My splitting headache, what will I do? I cannot work, the man thought.

His business is failing, it is going down, down, down, right down it is failing very badly.

What will I do? What can help me? Do I have to sell the business? I don't want to sell the business? I want help.

3

He is thinking how to get help. Yes, he's got it - his splitting headache is not helping him at all.

Non-Tribal Girl

(4) He is an efficient manager of a big tea industry. But this year the production failed.

The labourers by the help of the union did strike, and the staff also did not work properly, so the production failed.

He was thinking how he will manage the deficit. If he could not manage his position will be taken away.

So he was planning to fulfil the labourers' demands and increase more production.